Short summary

- The teacher reads Matthew 4:1-11: the Spirit leads Jesus into the wilderness, He fasts forty days and nights, and the tempter tests Him three times. Each time Jesus answers, 'It is written,' quoting Deuteronomy. Then the devil leaves and angels minister to Him.
- Three tests, three expressions of one idea: what it means to be the Son of God. Food (appetite), rescue at the temple (affirmation from the Father), and the kingdoms of the world (power and ambition).
- The temptation is the culmination of a thread Matthew has woven since chapter 1: Jesus linked to Abraham, a Pharaoh-like Herod, a child hidden in Egypt, a baptism 'to fulfill all righteousness,' and the Father's voice, 'This is My beloved Son,' just as God called Israel His son.
- Like Israel, Jesus is led into the wilderness (the cloud and fire, Exodus 13:21), is hungry, and is tested. His answer about testing God points back to Massah, where Israel asked, 'Is Yahweh among us or not?' (Exodus 17:7).
- Behind it all is desire: Israel 'asking for food according to their desire' (Psalm 78:18) and Eve seeing that the tree was 'good for food' (Genesis 3:6). Where Adam, Eve and Israel gave in, Jesus, standing in Israel's place, says no.
- The lesson for the first hearers and for us: God's people need to be so filled and satisfied with the word of God that they stand firm in trusting Him, even in temptation. Like the Creator who rested, we learn to know when enough is enough.

Read it as the first hearers did

Matthew's first hearers knew the Exodus story and the garden of Genesis 3 by heart, and they probably heard this Gospel read aloud in church. So the teacher asks one question of verses 1-11: by telling this story, what is Matthew teaching the reader about Jesus? Listen for Israel's wilderness and Eden's garden behind every line.

The video reads from another English translation. Quotations on this page are from the LSB.

The Spirit leads Jesus into the wilderness; three temptations, three answers from Deuteronomy; angels minister to Him.

Context: 'Then' (4:1) follows straight on from the baptism and the Father's voice, 'This is My beloved Son.'

Mark's short account: forty days, Satan, the wild beasts, and angels ministering.

Luke's account: the second and third tests come in the opposite order, ending at Jerusalem.

Source of the first answer (8:3): forty years of testing, hunger and manna, 'as a man disciplines his son.'

Source of the second and third answers (6:13, 16), right after the Shema (6:4-5).

The psalm the devil quotes (91:11-12). Read on to 91:13.

Massah and Meribah: Israel tests Yahweh, 'Is Yahweh among us or not?' The video reads 17:7.

The serpent in the garden; the video reads 3:6, Eve sees the tree was good for food and a delight to the eyes.

The video reads 13:21: Yahweh led Israel by the pillar of cloud and fire.

Coming next (Episode 5): Jesus moves to Capernaum, fulfilling Isaiah 9:1-2.

Three tests, three answers

Food, rescue, power. Each card stamps 'It is written' as you scroll: the tempter's offer, Jesus' answer, and the Deuteronomy verse He quotes, all in the LSB.

TEST 1 · APPETITE

Stones into bread

THE TEMPTER · MATTHEW 4:3

“If You are the Son of God, command that these stones become bread.”

JESUS · MATTHEW 4:4

“It is written, ‘Man shall not live on bread alone, but on every word that proceeds out of the mouth of God.’”

📜 DEUTERONOMY 8:3 (LSB)

IT IS WRITTEN

“And He humbled you and let you be hungry and fed you with manna which you did not know, nor did your fathers know, that He might make you know that man does not live by bread alone, but by everything that proceeds out of the mouth of Yahweh.”

ISRAEL IN THE WILDERNESS Yahweh let Israel be hungry and fed them manna, 'testing you, to know what was in your heart' (Deuteronomy 8:2-3). Later they 'put God to the test by asking for food according to their desire' (Psalm 78:18). Deuteronomy 8:2-3 Psalm 78:17-19

The video: Satan tempts Jesus to use His 'son-of-God-ness' to eat. Jesus is truly hungry (4:2) and still trusts His Father to feed Him.

TEST 2 · AFFIRMATION

A leap from the temple

THE TEMPTER · MATTHEW 4:6

“If You are the Son of God, throw Yourself down; for it is written, / ‘He will command His angels concerning You’; and / ‘On their hands they will bear You up, / Lest You strike Your foot against a stone.’”

JESUS · MATTHEW 4:7

“Again, it is written, ‘You shall not put the Lord your God to the test.’”

📜 DEUTERONOMY 6:16 (LSB)

IT IS WRITTEN

“You shall not put Yahweh your God to the test, as you tested Him at Massah.”

PSALM IN CONTEXT The devil quotes Psalm 91:11-12. The next line reads: 'You will tread upon the fierce lion and cobra, / The young lion and the serpent you will trample down' (91:13).

ISRAEL IN THE WILDERNESS At Massah Israel 'tested Yahweh, saying, “Is Yahweh among us or not?”' (Exodus 17:7). The video: with the Father not visibly present, Satan invites Jesus to force Him to show up. Exodus 17:1-7 Psalm 91:11-13

Jesus will not stage a test to prove the Father is with Him. Later He says He could appeal to His Father for 'more than twelve legions of angels' (Matthew 26:53), and still chooses the cross.

TEST 3 · AMBITION

All the kingdoms of the world

THE TEMPTER · MATTHEW 4:9

“All these things I will give You, if You fall down and worship me.”

JESUS · MATTHEW 4:10

“Go, Satan! For it is written, ‘You shall worship the Lord your God, and serve Him only.’”

📜 DEUTERONOMY 6:13 (LSB)

IT IS WRITTEN

“Yahweh your God you shall fear; and Him you shall serve; and by His name you shall swear.”

ISRAEL IN THE WILDERNESS The next verse warns, 'You shall not walk after other gods' (Deuteronomy 6:14). At Sinai Israel 'made for themselves a molten calf and have worshiped it' (Exodus 32:8). Deuteronomy 6:13-15 Exodus 32:1-8

Matthew's wording ('worship… Him only') follows the Greek Old Testament tradition rather than the Hebrew 'fear.' The kingdoms Satan offers, Jesus receives later from the Father by way of the cross: 'All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth' (28:18).

Back to the garden: the same desires

“Then the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and that the tree was desirable to make one wise, so she took from its fruit and ate; and she gave also to her husband with her, and he ate.”

Genesis 3:6

VIDEO The teacher reads Genesis 3:6 and tracks the language of desire. Eve gave in, Israel gave in, all of us have given in; Jesus, the faithful Son, did not.

DEBATED Some readers also line up the three tests with 'the lust of the flesh and the lust of the eyes and the boastful pride of life' (1 John 2:16) or with the three phrases of Genesis 3:6. The parallel is suggestive; a one-to-one match is debated. Paul draws the larger contrast: 'through the one man’s disobedience the many were appointed sinners, even so through the obedience of the One the many will be appointed righteous' (Romans 5:19).

Who's who in the wilderness

What the video says, then a short background note.

Jesus

VIDEO The beloved Son standing in the place of Israel, Yahweh's chosen servant. Where Adam, Eve and Israel gave in to desire, He refuses, answering each test with Scripture.

BACKGROUND 'One who has been tempted in all things like we are, yet without sin' (Hebrews 4:15). 'He is able to come to help those who are tempted' (Hebrews 2:18).

Hebrews 4:14-16 | Hebrews 2:17-18 | ◆ Jesus Christ | ◆ Temptation of Jesus

The devil, the tempter, Satan

VIDEO He strikes three times at one idea: what it means to be the Son of God.

BACKGROUND Matthew uses three names: 'the devil' (4:1, Greek diabolos), 'the tempter' (4:3) and 'Satan' (4:10, from Hebrew satan, 'adversary'). In the Old Testament the satan appears as an accuser in Job 1-2 and Zechariah 3. Luke adds that he left Jesus 'until an opportune time' (Luke 4:13).

Job 1:6-12 | Zechariah 3:1-2 | Luke 4:13

The Spirit

VIDEO Leads Jesus into the wilderness, as the cloud and fire led Israel.

BACKGROUND Mark is stronger: 'the Spirit drove Him to go out into the wilderness' (Mark 1:12). Luke: Jesus was 'full of the Holy Spirit' (Luke 4:1). The same Spirit came down on Him at His baptism (3:16).

Mark 1:12 | Luke 4:1 | Matthew 3:16 | ◆ Holy Spirit

Angels

VIDEO After the devil leaves, 'angels came and began to minister to Him' (4:11).

BACKGROUND The verb (diakoneō) is also used for waiting on someone at a meal (8:15). Jesus would not force Psalm 91's angels to catch Him; afterward His Father sends them. Mark adds that 'He was with the wild beasts' (Mark 1:13).

Matthew 4:11 | Matthew 8:15 | Mark 1:13

Israel in the wilderness

VIDEO God's son, led by the cloud, tested by hunger, and failing by desire (Exodus 13, 17; Psalm 78).

BACKGROUND Deuteronomy 8:5: 'Yahweh your God was disciplining you just as a man disciplines his son.'

Adam and Eve

VIDEO The first humans, enticed by the serpent and led by desire (Genesis 3:6).

BACKGROUND Irenaeus (2nd century) reads the temptation as Jesus 're-running' Adam's test and winning it (see Early witnesses). Paul contrasts 'the one man's disobedience' with 'the obedience of the One' (Romans 5:19).

Genesis 3:1-7 | Romans 5:12-19

Moses and Elijah

VIDEO The video compares the child Jesus, hidden from a murderous tyrant, to Moses. It does not mention their forty-day fasts.

BACKGROUND Moses was on the mountain 'forty days and forty nights; he did not eat bread or drink water' (Exodus 34:28). Elijah went 'forty days and forty nights to Horeb' (1 Kings 19:8). Both later appear with Jesus on the mountain (17:3).

Key terms

Tempt / test

BACKGROUND

One Greek verb (peirazō) covers both. God tests to prove and strengthen (Deuteronomy 8:2); the devil tempts to make someone fall. 'God cannot be tempted by evil, and He Himself does not tempt anyone' (James 1:13).

◆ Factbook: Temptation of Jesus

If You are the Son of God

VIDEO

The question behind all three tests. The Father has just said 'This is My beloved Son' (3:17); the tempter does not deny it but pushes Jesus to use His sonship for Himself. The same taunt returns at the cross: 'If You are the Son of God, come down from the cross' (27:40).

It is written

VIDEO

Jesus' answer three times. The Greek perfect tense means 'it stands written': settled and still in force. All three quotations come from Deuteronomy 6-8.

Forty days and forty nights

BACKGROUND

The video promises to return to numbers but does not. Forty marks testing and preparation: the flood (Genesis 7:12), Moses on the mountain (Exodus 34:28), Israel's forty years (Deuteronomy 8:2), Elijah (1 Kings 19:8).

The holy city

BACKGROUND

Jerusalem. Matthew uses the phrase again in 27:53.

Pinnacle of the temple

BACKGROUND

Literally 'little wing' (pterygion), some high edge of the temple complex. Matthew does not say which; many think of the southeast corner above the Kidron Valley.

A very high mountain

BACKGROUND

Matthew names no mountain; no single peak shows 'all the kingdoms of the world.' Mountains matter in Matthew: the sermon (5:1), the transfiguration (17:1), the commission (28:16).

Massah

VIDEO

'Testing,' the place where Israel quarreled and asked, 'Is Yahweh among us or not?' (Exodus 17:7). Deuteronomy 6:16, which Jesus quotes, names it.

Desire

VIDEO

The video's key word. Eve saw the tree was 'desirable' (Genesis 3:6); Israel asked for food 'according to their desire' (Psalm 78:18). 'Each one is tempted when he is carried away and enticed by his own lust' (James 1:14).

Historical and cultural background

ESTABLISHED Facts most interpreters agree on

All three answers: Deuteronomy 6–8

Deuteronomy is Moses' farewell preaching to Israel on the plains of Moab, after forty years in the wilderness. Jesus quotes 8:3, 6:16 and 6:13, close to the Shema: 'Hear, O Israel! Yahweh is our God, Yahweh is one! You shall love Yahweh your God with all your heart' (6:4-5). Matthew's wording follows the

Three Gospels, one test

Mark gives two verses (1:12-13). Matthew and Luke give the three tests, but Luke has the temple last (Luke 4:5-12), while Matthew ends on the mountain, with worship. Matthew links the scene to the baptism: 'Then' (4:1).

Greek Old Testament: 'every word' (8:3) and 'worship... Him only' (6:13).

The temple Satan stood Him on

Herod the Great began rebuilding the temple and its courts in his eighteenth year, about 20/19 BC (Josephus, Antiquities 15.11.1). Josephus describes the royal portico on the south side as so high above the valley that anyone looking down would grow dizzy (Antiquities 15.11.5).

Fasting forty days

Moses (Exodus 34:28; Deuteronomy 9:9) and Elijah (1 Kings 19:8) both went forty days without ordinary food. Matthew says Jesus 'fasted' (4:2); Luke says 'He ate nothing during those days' (Luke 4:2). Only afterward did He become hungry.

Psalm 91 in context

A psalm of trust: whoever shelters in the Most High is guarded by His angels. The devil quotes 91:11-12 as a dare. The psalm's promise is for those who trust God, not for those who test Him.

SOURCED Early witnesses

> "For as at the beginning it was by means of food that [the enemy] persuaded man, although not suffering hunger, to transgress God's commandments, so in the end he did not succeed in persuading Him that was an hungered to take that food which proceeded from God.
> Irenaeus of Lyons, c. AD 180. Against Heresies 5.21.2, Ante-Nicene Fathers vol. 1 (public domain). Of the second test he writes that the devil was 'concealing a falsehood under the guise of Scripture.'

> "Then. When? After the descent of the Spirit, after the voice that was borne from above, and said, This is My Beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.
> John Chrysostom, c. AD 390. Homilies on Matthew 13, Nicene and Post-Nicene Fathers, series 1, vol. 10 (public domain). He also says Jesus answered 'bringing him a testimony out of the ancient Scripture.'

DEBATED Where scholars differ

Matthew's order or Luke's?

Luke has the temple last; Matthew has the mountain last. Many think Matthew's order builds to the climax of worship ('Go, Satan!'), while Luke's ends at Physical journey or vision?

No mountain shows 'all the kingdoms of the world,' so some read the second and third tests as visionary. Others take the journeys as real, with the 'showing' supernatural. Matthew says the devil 'took Him' (4:5, 8) and does not explain how.

Jerusalem, the goal of his Gospel. Neither writer says his order is chronological.

Could Jesus have sinned?

Hebrews says He was tempted 'in all things like we are, yet without sin' (4:15). Theologians differ on whether He was able not to sin or not able to sin; all agree the testing was real. The video puts it simply: 'Jesus is the God-man, and there are things only He could go through.'

Do the three tests match Genesis 3:6 or 1 John 2:16?

Some line up food, eyes and pride one for one; others think that is too neat. The video links them more loosely, through the language of desire.

CAREFUL READING

Small slips in the video

Small slips worth knowing (offered gently; the video's main points stand):

- The video says Herod 'killed firstborns.' Matthew 2:16 says he killed 'all the male children who were in Bethlehem and all its vicinity, from two years old and under.' Pharaoh had ordered every Hebrew son killed (Exodus 1:22); the death of the firstborn was the tenth plague, on Egypt (Exodus 12:29). The Pharaoh parallel still holds.
- The video promises, 'We're going to get into numbers and what they mean later,' but does not come back to the forty days. See Key terms and the Timeline for a start.
- The video calls Matthew 'probably a letter that's being read to the church.' Matthew is a Gospel, not a letter, though the teacher's point stands: it was likely heard read aloud by early believers.
- Among the Isaiah references, the video lists 'the true vine' (John 15:1). The words are Jesus' own in John; the Old Testament picture behind them is Israel as God's vine (Psalm 80:8; Isaiah 5:1-7).
- The captions read 'Matthew 4:1-1'; the passage is Matthew 4:1-11.

Reflection and discussion

0 of 4 questions marked done on this device.

1 ☐ The video's own challenge: 'If God's people need to be so filled and satisfied with the word of God that they can stand firm in trusting Him even in the midst of temptation, then will you?' What would that look like for you this week?

2 ☐ All three of Jesus' answers come from Deuteronomy 6-8. Read those three chapters. What else there would have strengthened Him, and you?

3 ☐ Appetite, affirmation, ambition: which of the three hits closest to home? Where do you need to tell a desire, 'No, I will not be ruled by you'?

4 ☐ The devil quoted Scripture too (Psalm 91). How can you tell Scripture used rightly from Scripture twisted? Read Psalm 91 whole and compare.

Application

FROM THE VIDEO

The video's lesson for the original audience: to withstand the devil, who entices God's people to give in to their own desires, we must be filled with the word of God and so satisfied with it that we stand firm in trusting the Lord, His provision and His plans. Where mankind failed, Jesus succeeded. Like our Creator, who stopped and saw that His work was good, we learn to know when enough is enough.

STUDY NOTE (ADDED)

Jesus did not invent new weapons; He used verses Israel had known for centuries, in context. Treasure the word now, before the test comes: 'Your word I have treasured in my heart, / That I may not sin against You' (Psalm 119:11). 'The sword of the Spirit... is the word of God' (Ephesians 6:17). And when you fail, the One who passed the test is 'able to come to help those who are tempted' (Hebrews 2:18; see 1 Corinthians 10:13).

The lesson for you: will you be filled and satisfied with the word of God?
