01 · FROM THE VIDEO

Short summary

- The teacher reads Matthew 7:13-29: the narrow gate, false prophets in sheep's clothing, trees known by their fruit, 'Lord, Lord,' and the wise and foolish builders. The crowds are astonished at His authority.
- The audience is the same as for chapters 5-7: Jesus, His disciples, and crowds from Galilee, the Decapolis, Jerusalem, Judea and beyond the Jordan (4:25). As the sermon ends it retreads its earlier themes, which the video reads as a chiasm.
- 'The Law and the Prophets' (5:17; 7:12) is shorthand for the whole Tanakh. The video argues that 'fulfill' and 'abolish' are idioms for interpreting Scripture well or badly, so the sermon is Jesus' true interpretation of God's word, bookended by that phrase.
- Like a first-century rabbi, Jesus drops hints (remez) from the Old Testament: the gate of Lady Wisdom and the house of Lady Folly (Proverbs 8-9), the evening wolves (Zephaniah 3:3), the fruitful tree (Psalm 1), and Wisdom's house (Proverbs 9:1).
- Halakha, 'the walk,' is how one lives out the Torah; the deeds are its fruit. A person's actions prove their theology, as James 2 argues. The false prophets look religious but bear rotten fruit.
- Who are they? Jeremiah 23:11 says prophet and priest are polluted. The video says Jesus means the religious leaders: priests, scribes, Sadducees and corrupt Pharisees. It is possible to know and teach God's word

Listen for the hints

The teacher's tip: when Jesus mentions a gate, a wolf, a tree or a house, stop and ask where Israel's Scriptures used that picture. Find the passage, read it whole, and bring it back to the sermon. Rewatch the video and chew on it.

The video reads from another English translation. Quotations on this page are from the LSB.

Matthew 7:12
'This is the Law and the Prophets': the second bookend.

Proverbs 8:1-3
Wisdom calls beside the gates.

Proverbs 9:1-6
Wisdom has built her house and calls the simple to live.

Proverbs 9:13-18
Lady Folly calls too, but her guests are in Sheol.

Zephaniah 3:3-4
Jerusalem's judges are wolves at evening.

Psalm 1:1-3
The man who delights in the law is a fruitful tree.

James 2:14-17
Faith without works: actions prove theology.

Matthew 5:14-16
The light whose good works others see.

Jeremiah 23:9-16
Prophet and priest are polluted; they speak a vision of their own heart.

Matthew 8:1-17
Coming next (Episode 12): Jesus comes down the mountain and heals.

03 · FROM THE VIDEO · LSB TEXT

Gates, wolves, trees and houses

Four pictures Jesus drew from Israel's Scriptures, as the video traces them.

THE GATE · MATTHEW 7:13-14

Two ladies, two gates

LADY WISDOM · PROVERBS 8:3

“Beside the gates, at the opening to the city, / At the entrance of the doors, she makes a shout:”

LADY FOLLY · PROVERBS 9:18

“But he does not know that the dead are there, / That those she called are in the depths of Sheol.”

FROM THE VIDEO Gates are where Wisdom takes her stand. But Lady Folly also calls to those who pass by, from the doorway of her house, offering what looks like the same thing; her path leads to death. Proverbs 8:1-3 Proverbs 9:13-18

FROM THE VIDEO 'Enter through the narrow gate' takes the disciples back to the choice between wisdom and foolishness. The gates may look alike; the difference is obedience to Jesus' words (7:24, 26).

BACKGROUND Chrysostom: 'look not to this, says He, that it is rough and narrow, but where it ends; nor that the opposite is wide and spacious, but where it issues' (Homilies on Matthew 23). Compare 'I set before you the way of life and the way of death' (Jeremiah 21:8). Jeremiah 21:8 Deuteronomy 30:15

THE WOLVES · MATTHEW 7:15

Wolves at evening

ZEPHANIAH 3:3-4 (LSB) REMEZ

“Her princes in her midst are roaring lions; / Her judges are wolves at evening; / They leave nothing to gnaw for the morning. / Her prophets are reckless, treacherous men; / Her priests have profaned the sanctuary. / They have done violence to the law.”

FROM THE VIDEO In Zephaniah God calls Jerusalem's officials evening wolves, when wolves are hungriest. The very ones meant to judge and prophesy God's word do violence to His law.

FROM THE VIDEO Some of the most corrupt leaders will take Jesus' life and persecute His disciples. The warning is not theoretical.

BACKGROUND Ezekiel uses the same picture: 'Her princes within her are like wolves tearing the prey' (Ezekiel 22:27). Paul warns the Ephesian elders of 'savage wolves' (Acts 20:29). Ezekiel 22:27 Acts 20:29-30

◆ Factbook: Jerusalem

THE FRUIT · MATTHEW 7:16-20

A tree planted by streams

PSALM 1:1-3 (LSB) REMEZ

“How blessed is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked, / Nor stand in the way of sinners, / Nor sit in the seat of scoffers! / But his delight is in the law of Yahweh, / And in His law he meditates day and night. / And he will be like a tree firmly planted by streams of water, / Which yields its fruit in its season”

FROM THE VIDEO 'Every good tree bears good fruit' (7:17): you are meant to think of Psalm 1. Jesus calls His disciples to choose the way of true wisdom over the false teachers.

BACKGROUND John the Baptist used the picture first: 'every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire' (3:10), the same words as 7:19. Matthew 3:10 Matthew 12:33

◆ Factbook: John the Baptist

THE HOUSE · MATTHEW 7:24-27

Wisdom has built her house

WISDOM'S HOUSE · PROVERBS 9:1

“Wisdom has built her house, / She has hewn out her seven pillars;”

WISDOM'S INVITATION · PROVERBS 9:6

“Forsake your simplicity and live, / And step into the way of understanding.”

FROM THE VIDEO Wisdom builds her house and sets a banquet for all who will listen. Jesus ends His sermon with the same call: hear and do, and build on the rock.

BACKGROUND Luke adds that the wise man 'dug and went deep, and laid a foundation on the rock' (Luke 6:48). In Galilee, dry wadis can become torrents after winter rain. Luke 6:46-49

The sermon's bookends

The end of the sermon echoes its beginning.

BOOKEND · 5:17 AND 7:12

The Law and the Prophets

START · MATTHEW 5:17

“Do not think that I came to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I did not come to abolish but to fulfill.”

END · MATTHEW 7:12

“Therefore, in all things, whatever you want people to do for you, so do for them, for this is the Law and the Prophets.”

FROM THE VIDEO The phrase is shorthand for the whole Tanakh: Torah (Law), Nevi'im (Prophets) and Ketuvim (Writings), the Christian Old Testament. Jesus bookends the sermon with it to show that the sermon is about rightly interpreting and living out God's word.

BACKGROUND Matthew 5:21-7:12 is the body of the sermon. In the kingdom of God, God's people obey Him, and in obeying they spread His kingdom.

◆ Factbook: Law of Moses ◆ Factbook: The Prophets (books)

ECHO · 5:20 AND 7:21

A greater righteousness

START · MATTHEW 5:20

“For I say to you that unless your righteousness surpasses that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven.”

END · MATTHEW 7:21

“Not everyone who says to Me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ will enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of My Father who is in heaven will enter.”

FROM THE VIDEO The fruit Jesus wants far exceeds the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees. Both groups give, pray and fast; the difference is the heart.

◆ Factbook: Righteousness ◆ Factbook: Scribe ◆ Factbook: Pharisees ◆ Factbook: Kingdom of heaven

ECHO · 5:16 AND 7:24

Light that people can see

START · MATTHEW 5:16

“Let your light shine before men in such a way that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father who is in heaven.”

END · MATTHEW 7:24

“Therefore everyone who hears these words of Mine and does them, may be compared to a wise man who built his house on the rock.”

FROM THE VIDEO Building on the rock retreads being a light to the world: radical fruit that everyone will see, giving glory to the Father.

Known by their fruit

Who the false prophets are, and how to tell.

WHO ARE THEY? · JEREMIAH 23

Prophet and priest are polluted

JEREMIAH 23:11 (LSB)

LEADERS

“For both prophet and priest are polluted; / Even in My house I have found their evil,” declares Yahweh.”

FROM THE VIDEO The word does not mean pagan; these men were highly religious. The video: Jesus means the religious leaders of God's people: the priests, the scribes, the Sadducees, the corrupt Pharisees.

BACKGROUND Jeremiah goes on: 'They speak a vision of their own heart, / Not from the mouth of Yahweh' (Jeremiah 23:16).

THE TEST · MATTHEW 7:16-20

Actions prove theology

🍇 JAMES 2:15-16 (LSB)

FRUIT

“If a brother or sister is without clothing and in need of daily food, and one of you says to them, “Go in peace, be warmed and be filled,” and yet you do not give them what is necessary for their body, what use is that?”

FROM THE VIDEO Halakha (from the Hebrew for 'walk') is how a person walks out the Torah; the video calls the deeds the fruit on the tree of halakha. If a teacher's theology does not make him lowly, merciful, loving and radically generous, the fruit is rotten, whatever he teaches.

FROM THE VIDEO James makes the same argument, with an outcast who cannot clothe or feed himself. James 2:14-17

THE FRIGHTENING VERSE · MATTHEW 7:21-23

I never knew you

😨 MATTHEW 7:22-23 (LSB)

WARNING

“Many will say to Me on that day, ‘Lord, Lord, in Your name did we not prophesy, and in Your name cast out demons, and in Your name do many miracles?’ And then I will declare to them, ‘I never knew you; depart from Me, you who practice lawlessness.’”

FROM THE VIDEO It is possible for respected religious leaders who teach and observe God's word with authority to be far from the Lord and ignore what matters to Him.

BACKGROUND Chrysostom calls it 'that fearful saying, I never knew you' (Homilies on Matthew 24). Jesus says later, 'Many false prophets will arise and will deceive many' (24:11). Matthew 24:11 Matthew 24:24

Historical and cultural background

ESTABLISHED Facts most interpreters agree on

City gates

Wolves and shepherds

The gate was where elders judged, business was done and news was shared. In Proverbs, Wisdom stands at the gates to call the city.

Wolves were a real danger to flocks. Prophets used them for rulers who preyed on the people (Zephaniah 3:3; Ezekiel 22:27).

Building in Galilee

Houses were built of basalt stones. In the rainy season, dry stream beds can flood suddenly; a house on bedrock stands, one on sand washes out.

Teaching with authority

Scribes taught by citing earlier teachers. Jesus' 'But I say to you' in chapter 5 stunned the crowds (7:28-29).

DEBATED Where scholars differ

Do 'abolish' and 'fulfill' mean 'misinterpret' and 'interpret'?

The video holds this view, popular in some Jewish-roots teaching. Many scholars read 'fulfill' in Matthew as bringing to its intended goal, as with prophecy fulfilled (1:22; 2:15). Either way, 5:17-48 shows Jesus giving the true sense of the Law.

Who are the false prophets?

The video: the Jewish religious leaders of Jesus' day. Others see a warning for the church's future too, as in 24:11 and Acts 20:29-30.

Is the sermon a chiasm?

Several outlines propose a mirrored shape (for example the bookends 5:17 and 7:12). Not every scholar agrees on the details.

Does 7:21-23 deny that the miracles happened?

Jesus does not dispute their claims; He says He never knew them. Works done 'in Your name' are not the same as doing the Father's will.

CAREFUL READING

Small slips in the video

Small slips worth knowing (offered gently; the video's main points stand):

- On screen the fruitful tree is Psalm 1:1-3 (the captions say 'Psalm 11 1:3'), and the evening wolves are Zephaniah 3:3 (the captions say 'Zephaniah 33').
- Mitzvot literally means 'commandments' (singular mitzvah). It is also used for good deeds, which is the video's point.
- In Jeremiah 23:11 the Hebrew is the verb chanaph (H2610), 'polluted' in the LSB. The 'hypocrite' sense belongs to the related word chaneph (H2611), 'godless' in the LSB (Job 8:13), which older English Bibles render 'hypocrite.'
- That 'abolish' and 'fulfill' are idioms for interpreting is the video's view; scholars debate it (see Debates).
- In the video's reading of 5:17, 'the Law of the Prophets' should be 'the Law or the Prophets.'

Reflection and discussion

0 of 6 questions marked done on this device.

1 ☐ What makes the narrow gate hard to find, and the wide gate easy to walk through?

2 ☐ The video says the two gates can look alike. How would you tell Wisdom's call from Folly's today?

3 ☐ How would you check a teacher's fruit against the Beatitudes, without becoming the judge 7:1-5 warns about?

4 ☐ Is it possible to love your ministry for God more than God? What are the warning signs?

5 ☐ Which of Jesus' words in chapters 5-7 are you hearing but not yet doing?

6 ☐ Rewatch the video, as the teacher suggests. What did you notice the second time?

14

Application

FROM THE VIDEO

The lesson for the original audience: it is possible for respected religious leaders who teach and observe God's word with authority to be far from the Lord and ignore what matters to Him. Disciples should watch not just what teachers say, however correct, but whether their fruit matches the sermon. For us: are there those who know and teach God's word but are far from the Lord in their hearts? You will know by watching what they do, and seeing if it aligns with the Beatitudes and Jesus' examples. Think about how this applies to your life so that you can do something about it.

STUDY NOTE (ADDED)

turn the test on yourself first (7:5). Pick one Beatitude this week and ask, 'Does my life bear this fruit?' Then do one concrete thing Jesus said in chapters 5-7, since the wise builder is the one who 'hears these words of Mine and does them' (7:24).
