Short summary

- The teacher reads Matthew 8:1-17. Jesus comes down from the mountain and heals three people: a leper, a centurion's paralyzed servant, and Peter's mother-in-law. That evening He heals many more, fulfilling Isaiah. Parallels: Mark 1:29-34, 40-45 and Luke 4:38-41.
- All three are outcasts of a sort: the leper is ritually unclean, the centurion is a Gentile and part of the occupying power, and Peter's mother-in-law is a woman in a world where women had lower status.
- Each healing is Jesus living out His sermon. He tells the leper to obey Leviticus 14 (5:17, not abolishing the Law) and to tell no one (6:1, not practicing righteousness to be seen). He honors a Roman officer's request (5:43-48, love your enemies; 5:41, the extra mile).
- 'Many will come from east and west' is a hint (remez) of Psalm 107 and Isaiah 65: Gentiles who cry out to the Lord will sit at God's banquet, while 'sons of the kingdom' who forsake Him are cast out, as in 7:21-23.
- Jesus marvels at the centurion. With D. A. Carson, the video says the wonder is not just that he believed Jesus could heal from a distance, but how deeply he grasped the secret of Jesus' authority: illness obeys Jesus as soldiers obey an officer.
- The lesson: the kind of heart a disciple has gives unique spiritual insight, even discernment, about Jesus. The centurion's humility ('I am not good enough') is the poor-

Read the parallels

The teacher's tip: read Matthew's account, then the same events in Mark 1:29-34, 40-45 and Luke 4:38-41 (and the centurion in Luke 7:1-10). The other Gospels add details that color in the scene.

The video reads from another English translation. Quotations on this page are from the LSB.

Three outcasts healed

A leper, a Gentile officer's servant, and a woman with a fever, then many more at evening.

THE LEPER · MATTHEW 8:1-4

I am willing; be cleansed

THE LAW · LEVITICUS 13:46

“He shall live alone; his place of habitation shall be outside the camp.”

THE KING OF ISRAEL · 2 KINGS 5:7

“Am I God, to put to death and to make alive, that this man is sending word to me to cure a man of his leprosy?”

MATTHEW 8:2-3 (LSB)

UNCLEAN

“And behold, a leper came to Him and was bowing down before Him, and said, “Lord, if You are willing, You can make me clean.” And Jesus stretched out His hand and touched him, saying, “I am willing; be cleansed.” And immediately his leprosy was cleansed.”

FROM THE VIDEO The leper is an outcast through bodily and ritual uncleanness, yet he is convinced Jesus has the authority to heal him. Healing leprosy was thought as hard as raising the dead (2 Kings 5:7). This is the first detailed healing in Matthew.

FROM THE VIDEO No Israelite leper had been healed by a prophet: 'none of them was cleansed, but only Naaman the Syrian' (Luke 4:27), and Naaman was not healed directly. Luke 4:27 2 Kings 5:10

BACKGROUND Chrysostom on the touch: 'His hand became not unclean from the leprosy, but the leprous body was rendered clean by His holy hand' (Homilies on Matthew 25).

THE CENTURION · MATTHEW 8:5-13

Just say the word

MATTHEW 8:8-9 (LSB)

GENTILE

“But the centurion said, “Lord, I am not good enough for You to come under my roof, but just say the word, and my servant will be healed. For I also am a man under authority, with soldiers under me; and I say to this man, ‘Go!’ and he goes, and to another, ‘Come!’ and he comes, and to my slave, ‘Do this!’ and he does it.””

FROM THE VIDEO A Gentile, an enemy officer, believes healing can happen at a distance. Others came close to Jesus to be healed; the centurion saw that Jesus' authority was not limited by distance. How he worked this out, Scripture does not say.

FROM THE VIDEO He uses his own authority as an analogy: illness, health and even the body are soldiers under Jesus' command. If Jesus tells health to go, it goes.

SERVE

"When Jesus came into Peter's home, He saw his mother-in-law lying sick in bed with a fever. And He touched her hand, and the fever left her; and she got up and began waiting on Him."

FROM THE VIDEO Touching her hand broke the social norms of the day, and Mark's account places it on the Sabbath (Mark 1:21, 29-31). That may be why the crowds waited until evening (8:16): they were waiting for the Sabbath to end. Mark 1:21 Mark 1:29-34

FROM THE VIDEO She 'began waiting on Him' (diakoneō, in a tense that can mean 'kept serving'), the word often used for Christian service. Some see a sign that she became a disciple.

ISAIAH

"Now when evening came, they brought to Him many who were demon-possessed; and He cast out the spirits with a word, and healed all who were ill in order to fulfill what was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying, "He Himself took our infirmities and carried away our diseases.""

BACKGROUND Matthew quotes Isaiah 53:4 closer to the Hebrew, where the words also mean 'sicknesses' and 'pains.' Healing the sick fulfills the Servant's work; 'with a word' echoes the centurion's 'just say the word.'

The sermon lived out

The video's main point: each act puts a teaching from chapters 5-7 into practice.

NOT TO ABOLISH · 5:17 AND 8:4

Go, show yourself to the priest

THE SERMON · MATTHEW 5:17

“Do not think that I came to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I did not come to abolish but to fulfill.”

DOWN THE MOUNTAIN · MATTHEW 8:4

“go, show yourself to the priest and present the offering that Moses commanded, as a testimony to them.”

FROM THE VIDEO Jesus tells the healed man to fulfill the Torah's law of cleansing (Leviticus 14). He is not abolishing the Law.

NOT TO BE SEEN · 6:1 AND 8:4

See that you tell no one

THE SERMON · MATTHEW 6:1

“Beware of doing your righteousness before men to be noticed by them;”

DOWN THE MOUNTAIN · MATTHEW 8:4

“See that you tell no one;”

FROM THE VIDEO He does a great deed and asks for silence: righteousness that is not done to be seen.

BACKGROUND Chrysostom: 'He bids him tell no man, teaching us to avoid boasting and vainglory' (Homilies on Matthew 25).

LOVE YOUR ENEMIES · 5:44 AND 8:7

I will come and heal him

THE SERMON · MATTHEW 5:44

“But I say to you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you,”

DOWN THE MOUNTAIN · MATTHEW 8:7

“I will come and heal him.”

FROM THE VIDEO Romans were Gentiles, pagans and the occupying enemy. Jesus greets one and honors his request. 'Love' here is agapaō: seek your enemy's good, even giving up your own rights.

FROM THE VIDEO The 'one mile' of 5:41 fits Roman soldiers, who could force a local to carry gear for a mile. Now Jesus shows what loving such a man looks like. Matthew 5:41

“I never knew you; depart from Me, you who practice lawlessness.”

DOWN THE MOUNTAIN · MATTHEW 8:12

“but the sons of the kingdom will be cast out into the outer darkness; in that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.”

Historical and cultural background

ESTABLISHED Facts most interpreters agree on

Leprosy and the Law

Leviticus 13-14 describes how a priest examined skin disease and later declared a healed person clean, with offerings. A leper lived outside the camp. Touching one made a person unclean.

Centurions in Galilee

Galilee was ruled by Herod Antipas, whose troops were organized on Roman lines and included non-Jews. Matthew does not say 'Roman'; either way he was a Gentile officer of the ruling power.

A house in Capernaum

Under an octagonal Byzantine church in Capernaum, archaeologists found a first-century house that early Christians seem to have honored as Peter's.

Evening and the Sabbath

Mark sets these events on a Sabbath (Mark 1:21-32). The Sabbath ended at sunset, so people could carry the sick after evening came.

SOURCED Early witnesses

> For His hand became not unclean from the leprosy, but the leprous body was rendered clean by His holy hand.
> John Chrysostom, c. AD 390. Homilies on Matthew 25, on 8:3. Nicene and Post-Nicene Fathers, series 1, vol. 10 (public domain).

> For he did no less than imagine to himself, as it seems to me, the armies in Heaven; or that the diseases and death, and everything else, were so subject to Him, as his soldiers to himself.
> John Chrysostom, c. AD 390. Homilies on Matthew 26, on 8:9. NPNF 1.10 (public domain).

> Having therefore touched her body, He not only quenched the fever, but also gave her back perfect health.
> John Chrysostom, c. AD 390. Homilies on Matthew 27, on 8:15. NPNF 1.10 (public domain).

DEBATED

Where scholars differ

Why tell the leper to tell no one?

The video: Jesus lives out 6:1. Others: to avoid crowds seeking only miracles (Mark 1:45 shows what happened), or to let the priest's verdict be the 'testimony to them.' Chrysostom: to teach us to avoid boasting.

What amazed Jesus?

The video, following D. A. Carson: the depth of the centurion's insight into Jesus' authority, not just the size of his trust.

Did the centurion come himself?

Matthew has him speak to Jesus; Luke says he sent Jewish elders and friends (Luke 7:3, 6). Many explain this as a common way of speaking: acting through agents counts as acting in person.

Were women 'second-class citizens'?

Women had fewer legal rights, and some later rabbinic sayings discourage talking with women. Practice varied, and women supported Jesus' ministry (Luke 8:1-3).

CAREFUL READING

Small slips in the video

Small slips worth knowing (offered gently; the video's main points stand):

- 'You who forsake Yahweh, who forget My holy mountain' is Isaiah 65:11 (the captions say 65:1); 'I will destine you for the sword' is 65:12.
- In Deuteronomy 23 the mamzer ('illegitimate birth') is in verse 2; the Ammonites and Moabites are a separate law (verse 3), and 'never seek their peace or their prosperity' (verse 6) is about them, not about the mamzer.
- Mark and Luke parallel the leper and the fever (Mark 1:29-34, 40-45; Luke 4:38-41; 5:12-16), but the centurion's parallel is Luke 7:1-10, not in Mark.

- Matthew does not say the centurion was Roman. In Galilee he may have served Herod Antipas; either way he was a Gentile officer.
- The video quotes D. A. Carson without a citation. The idea, that the centurion grasped the secret of Jesus' authority, is the video's summary of Carson; the exact words could not be checked.

Reflection and discussion

0 of 6 questions marked done on this device.

1. Who are the 'outcasts' in your world? What would it look like to touch them, as Jesus did?
2. Jesus lived out His teaching right after giving it. Which recent teaching could you live out this week?
3. The centurion said, 'I am not good enough.' How does humility open our eyes to who Jesus is?
4. What does it mean to you that sickness obeys Jesus like a soldier?
5. Is there an 'enemy' whose good you could seek, as Jesus did for the centurion?
6. The video asks: are the qualities of heart in our churches in line with the Beatitudes? Gut check: what about yours?

14

Application

FROM THE VIDEO

The lesson for the original audience: the kind of heart a disciple has provides unique spiritual insight, even discernment, about Jesus. The centurion's humble, poor-in-spirit character gave him insight that the scribes and Pharisees lacked, though they obeyed the Law. This kind of heart will bring Gentiles to God's banquet and exclude the sons of the kingdom. For us: what qualities of heart are we cultivating in ourselves and our churches? Are they in line with the Beatitudes? Think about how it applies directly to your life so that you can do something about it.

STUDY NOTE (ADDED)

pray the centurion's words this week: 'Lord, I am not good enough… but just say the word' (8:8). Bring one person who cannot come to Jesus on their own, as the centurion did for his servant, and ask on their behalf.
