Short summary

- The teacher reads Matthew 17:1-13. Six days later Jesus takes Peter, James and John up a high mountain, and He is transfigured: His face shines like the sun and His garments become white as light. Moses and Elijah appear, talking with Him. Peter offers to make three booths; a bright cloud overshadows them and a voice says, 'This is My beloved Son, with whom I am well-pleased; listen to Him!' Coming down, the disciples ask why the scribes say Elijah must come first, and Jesus points to John the Baptist.
- The light comes from the inside out, first His face, then His clothes (Mark 9:3; Luke 9:29). Luke says Moses and Elijah spoke of His departure, in Greek His exodus (Luke 9:31): the new Moses will lead a new exodus through His death and resurrection. No one knows which mountain; many say Tabor, the video favors Hermon.
- Moses and Elijah both met God on a mountain (Exodus 19; 24; 1 Kings 19), and Moses' face shone (Exodus 34:29-30). But Moses reflected glory from outside; Jesus is 'the radiance of His glory' (Hebrews 1:3). Moses and Elijah stand for the Law and the Prophets (5:17) and are also types of Christ, as D. A. Carson notes.
- Every element recalls Sinai: a mountain after six days, three witnesses, shining glory, the cloud, and then a tabernacle, which is what Peter suggests. The Father's words gather Psalm 2:7, Isaiah 42:1 and Deuteronomy 18:15, one text from each part of the Tanakh.

> From the video (auto-captions, lightly cleaned)

- The disciples' question about Elijah (Malachi 4:5-6) shows a flawed view of the day of the Lord. Hearts must be turned first, a work of God's Spirit (Ezekiel 36). The lesson: the restoration of the world will be fully complete after Christ turns the hearts of His people to God.

Scripture passages covered

The video reads all of Matthew 17:1-13 and turns to Mark 9, Luke 9, Exodus 19, 24 and 34, 1 Kings 19, Psalm 2, Isaiah 42, Deuteronomy 18, Malachi 4, Hebrews 1 and Ezekiel 36. Each link opens those verses on read.lsbible.org.

Matthew 17:1-13
Read in full: the transfiguration and the question about Elijah.

Mark 9:2-13
Mark's account: whiter than any launderer; 'what rising from the dead meant.'

Luke 9:28-36
Luke's account: praying; His departure (exodos).

Exodus 19:1-3
Moses goes up to God.

Exodus 24:1-18
Witnesses, six days, the cloud and the glory.

Exodus 34:29-30
The skin of Moses' face shone.

1 Kings 19:8-13
Elijah at Horeb.

Psalms 2:7
'You are My Son.'

Isaiah 42:1
'My chosen one in whom My soul is well-pleased.'

Deuteronomy 18:15
'You shall listen to him.'

Malachi 4:5-6
Elijah before the day of Yahweh.

Hebrews 1:3
The radiance of His glory.

Ezekiel 36:25-27
A new heart and a new spirit.

Matthew 17:14-27
Coming next: the boy the disciples could not heal, and the temple tax.

From the inside out

MATTHEW 17:2 (LSB)

“And He was transfigured before them; and His face shone like the sun, and His garments became as white as light.”

METAMORPHOSIS

FROM THE VIDEO The shining starts from Jesus' face and then extends to His clothes. Mark: 'as no launderer on earth can whiten them' (Mark 9:3). Luke: 'His clothing became white and gleaming' (Luke 9:29). Mark 9:3 Luke 9:29

FROM THE VIDEO Those who know the end of the Gospels cannot help but think of the morning of the third day when the stone was rolled away.

LUKE 9:30-31 (LSB)

“And behold, two men were talking with Him, and they were Moses and Elijah, who, appearing in glory, were speaking of His departure which He was about to fulfill at Jerusalem.”

NEW EXODUS

FROM THE VIDEO In Greek, 'departure' is exodos. Jesus is the new Moses who leads God's people into a new exodus, not by marching into the desert but by dying and rising, with the gathering of His people afterward.

FROM THE VIDEO Mark says the disciples argued about 'what rising from the dead meant' (Mark 9:10). The whole scene helps them wrestle with His death, resurrection and ascension. Mark 9:10

FROM THE VIDEO Moses' face shone because God's glory was transmitted to him from outside. Jesus' light comes from inside Him.

FROM THE VIDEO Why so bright? Because the glory of the Lord is shown as a very bright light (Psalm 43:3; Isaiah 60:1; Revelation 21:23). Psalms 43:3 Isaiah 60:1 Revelation 21:23

FROM THE VIDEO Moses stands for the Law and Elijah for the Prophets, a picture of what Jesus said about fulfilling them (5:17).

FROM THE VIDEO They are also types of Christ. The video cites D. A. Carson: both men met God's glory on a mountain (Sinai and Horeb) and both suffered rejection, so Jesus, clearly superior to them, will walk a path that parallels theirs.

YOM ADONAI

“Behold, the day of Yahweh is coming, / Cruel, with fury and burning anger, / To make the land a desolation; / And He will exterminate its sinners from it.”

FROM THE VIDEO The disciples probably held a flawed or incomplete view of the day of the Lord, a theme taught throughout the Old Testament (Isaiah 13; Zechariah 14:1-5; Ezekiel 13:5; Zephaniah 1). It is a day of God's judgment and also His salvation.

EZEKIEL · EZEKIEL 36:26

“Moreover, I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit within you; and I will remove the heart of stone from your flesh and give you a heart of flesh.”

FROM THE VIDEO Returning to God's ways can only be a work of God through His Spirit. Jesus alluded to Ezekiel 36 when He told Nicodemus about being born of water and spirit (John 3). John 3:5

LESSON

“but I say to you that Elijah already came, and they did not recognize him, but did to him whatever they wished. So also the Son of Man is going to suffer at their hands.” Then the disciples understood that He had spoken to them about John the Baptist.”

FROM THE VIDEO The restoration of the world is first accomplished by the restoration of people's hearts to God, through Jesus' rejection, death and resurrection. So the lesson: the restoration of the world will be fully complete after Christ turns the hearts of His people to God.

Historical and cultural background

ESTABLISHED Facts most interpreters agree on Which mountain?

Origen and Cyril of Jerusalem name Mount Tabor, and churches have stood on its summit since the Byzantine period. Many modern scholars prefer Hermon because the Gospels call it 'a high mountain' and the last place named is Caesarea Philippi; some suggest Mount Meron. The Gospels do not say.

Shekinah

Shekinah, from the Hebrew for 'to dwell,' is a word of the later rabbis for God's presence among His people. The Bible itself speaks of the cloud and the glory filling the tabernacle (Exodus 40:34) and the temple (1 Kings 8:10-11).

Elijah expected

Malachi 4:5-6 closes the Prophets in the Christian Old Testament. Jewish tradition still leaves a cup for Elijah at Passover, and the Mishnah expects him to settle disputes (Mishnah Eduyot 8:7).

DEBATED Where scholars differ

Tabor or Hermon?

Is Elijah still to come?

Tradition since the fourth century says Tabor; the 'high mountain' and the setting near Caesarea Philippi lead many to Hermon. A Roman-era settlement on Tabor's top makes some doubt the privacy of 'by themselves.'

Jesus says both 'Elijah is coming' (17:11) and 'Elijah already came' (17:12). Some see John as the full fulfillment; others expect a further coming before the end (Revelation 11:3-6 is often cited).

Why Moses and Elijah?

Readers have seen the Law and the Prophets, two men who met God on Sinai/Horeb, two whose departures were unusual, or (Chrysostom) servants placed beside the Lord to show the difference.

CAREFUL READING

Small slips in the video

Small slips worth knowing (offered gently; the video's main points stand):

- The quote given as 'Exodus 19:2' runs on into 19:3; 'Moses went up to God, and Yahweh called to him from the mountain' is verse 3.
- 1 Kings 19 says Yahweh 'was not in the wind' but came in 'a sound of a thin gentle whisper' (1 Kings 19:11-12). Elijah went up 'by a whirlwind' in 2 Kings 2:11.
- 'Isaiah 13:16' should be 13:6 or 13:9, where the day of Yahweh is named.
- Mount Tabor lies in Lower Galilee, not south of Galilee.
- Exodus 24 has Aaron, Nadab and Abihu and also seventy elders and Joshua, so the three witnesses are not alone.
- The claim that midrash taught the Messiah would be confirmed by all three parts of the Tanakh is not sourced in the video, and the D. A. Carson quotation could not be checked here; it is summarized, not quoted.
- The captions write 'Tabore' and 'Hermmon,' 'Shikina' for Shekinah, 'Ketuim' and 'Neim' for Ketuvim and Nevi'im, 'Midash' for midrash, and 'Abihoo' for Abihu.

Reflection and discussion

0 of 6 questions marked done on this device.

1. What difference does it make that Jesus' glory shines from within rather than being reflected?
2. Why do you think Moses and Elijah talked with Him about His 'departure'?
3. Peter wanted to build booths and stay. When do you try to hold onto a mountaintop moment?
4. 'Listen to Him!' What is Jesus saying to you that you would rather not hear?
5. How does the day of the Lord bring both judgment and salvation?
6. Where do you need God to turn your heart before anything else can be restored?

Application

FROM THE VIDEO

The lesson, stated plainly: the restoration of the world will be fully complete after Christ turns the hearts of His people to God. The disciples were confused because they had not wrestled with God's requirement to turn the hearts of His people back to Him, and they had no concept of God dealing with sin by putting it on Christ on the cross. Yet that was necessary before the restoration of the world. In other words, the restoration of the world is first accomplished by the restoration of people's hearts to God, and that is accomplished through the rejection, the death and the resurrection of Jesus. The disciples learned it, as Peter's sermon at Pentecost and Paul's teaching in 1 Corinthians 15 show, and there are lots of implications that still affect us today.

STUDY NOTE (ADDED)

read Matthew 17:5 aloud and finish the sentence, 'This week I will listen to Him about...' Then pray Ezekiel 36:26 for one person whose heart you long to see turned to God.
