Short summary

- The teacher reads Matthew 4:12-25: after John is taken into custody, Jesus leaves Nazareth for Capernaum, by the sea in Zebulun and Naphtali, and Matthew says this fulfills Isaiah 9:1-2. Jesus begins to preach, calls four fishermen, and heals throughout Galilee as crowds gather.
- Matthew skips the early ministry John's Gospel records (the first disciples, water into wine, the temple, Nicodemus, the Samaritan woman). The Gospels are not arranged to line up perfectly, so the teacher reads them side by side.
- Simon and Andrew were not strangers when Jesus called them. Andrew first followed Jesus on John the Baptist's word (John 1:35-42), and they had already seen Him at work. Why they had gone back to fishing, Scripture does not say.
- Geography carries the message. The crowds come from Galilee, Jerusalem and Judea, but also from the Decapolis and beyond the Jordan. For the teacher, that means people from the nations, not only Israel, are already following Jesus.
- 'Fishers of men' would send a Jewish hearer to Jeremiah 16:16, where Yahweh sends fishermen to gather His scattered people.
- The lesson: Jesus began His ministry about as far from Jerusalem as He could, in 'Galilee of the Gentiles,' the land of the shadow of death. There He did two things:

He preached the gospel to people in darkness, and He healed the suffering. Will we do the same?

The teacher's opening question is about place: why does Jesus begin in Galilee, and who are all these people coming to hear Him? So read verses 12-25 twice: once for what happens, and once for where it happens. Then ask what the Old Testament says about those places.

The video reads from another English translation. Quotations on this page are from the LSB.

Scripture passages covered

The video reads all of Matthew 4:12-25, then walks through John 1 and 4 to place the scene.
Each link opens those verses on read.lsbible.org.

Matthew 4:12-25
Jesus moves to Capernaum, begins to preach, calls four fishermen and heals throughout Galilee; crowds come from every direction.

Isaiah 9:1-2
The prophecy Matthew quotes: light for Zebulun and Naphtali, 'Galilee of the Gentiles.' Read on to the promised Child in 9:6-7.

John 1:35-42
The video's key background: Andrew and another disciple of John follow Jesus; Andrew brings his brother Simon.

John 4:43-45
The video reads 4:43: after two days in Samaria, Jesus goes on into Galilee.

Mark 1:14-20
Mark's parallel: after John is taken into custody, Jesus preaches in Galilee and calls the same four fishermen.

Luke 4:14-31
Luke's order: Jesus returns to Galilee, is rejected in the Nazareth synagogue, then comes down to Capernaum.

Luke 5:1-11
Luke's fuller call story at the lake, with a great catch of fish. Whether it is the same moment as Matthew 4:18-22 is debated.

Jeremiah 16:14-18
The video's Old Testament key for Jesus' call (Jeremiah 16:16). Read the verses on both sides.

Isaiah 35:5-6
The video links Jesus' healing summary (4:23-24) to this picture of blind eyes opened and the lame leaping.

Matthew 5:1-2
Coming next (Episode 6): seeing the crowds, Jesus goes up on the mountain and teaches.

FULFILLED · MATTHEW 4:14-16

A great light for Zebulun and Naphtali

ISAIAH · ISAIAH 9:1-2

“But there will be no more gloom for her who was in anguish; in earlier times He treated the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali with contempt, but later on He shall make it glorious, by the way of the sea, on the other side of Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles. / The people who walk in darkness / Will see a great light; / Those who live in the land of the shadow of death, / The light will shine on them.”

MATTHEW · MATTHEW 4:15-16

“The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, / By the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles— / The people who were sitting in darkness saw a great Light, / And those who were sitting in the land and shadow of death, / Upon them a Light dawned.”

FROM THE VIDEO Matthew notes Jesus' return to Galilee and cites Isaiah 9:1-2. The light-and-dark picture fits because Galilee was ringed by pagan nations: 'a veritable land of the shadow of death.'

BACKGROUND Zebulun and Naphtali were the first of Israel's tribes to fall to Assyria: Tiglath-pileser 'took ... Galilee, all the land of Naphtali; and he took them away into exile to Assyria' (2 Kings 15:29). The first to go into the dark are promised the first light. Isaiah goes on to the Child who will be called 'Prince of Peace' (Isaiah 9:6). 2 Kings 15:29 Isaiah 9:6-7

Matthew's wording ('sitting in darkness') is closer to the Greek Old Testament than to the Hebrew ('walk in darkness'). The phrase 'darkness and the shadow of death' returns in Psalm 107:10 and in Zechariah's song about the coming Sunrise (Luke 1:79).

JOHN THE BAPTIST · MATTHEW 3:2

“Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.”

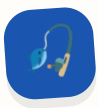

JESUS · MATTHEW 4:17

“Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.”

FROM THE VIDEO According to Matthew, Jesus begins His ministry after John is taken into custody (4:12), and 'from that time' (4:17) He preaches.

BACKGROUND Word for word, Jesus takes up John's message once John is silenced. Later He sends the Twelve with the same words (Matthew 10:7). 'From that time Jesus began' appears again at 16:21, where Jesus begins to show the disciples that He must suffer: two turning points in Matthew's story. Matthew 10:7 Matthew 16:21

ECHO · MATTHEW 4:18-20

Fishers of men

JEREMIAH · JEREMIAH 16:16

“Behold, I am going to send for many fishermen,” declares Yahweh, “and they will fish for them; and afterwards I will send for many hunters, and they will hunt them from every mountain and every hill and from the crevices of the rocks.”

JESUS · MATTHEW 4:19

“Follow Me, and I will make you fishers of men.”

FROM THE VIDEO A Jew would filter Jesus' words through the Old Testament. In Jeremiah 16, Yahweh sends fishermen to catch the scattered sons of Israel; that is the backdrop the teacher proposes.

DEBATED Jeremiah's fishermen come right after the promise of return (16:14-15), but the next verses speak of judgment: 'I will first doubly repay their iniquity' (Jeremiah 16:18). So some read the fishers as gatherers, others as agents of judgment. Ezekiel gives a hopeful picture: 'fishermen will stand beside it' where the river from the temple brings life (Ezekiel 47:10). ELISHA AND ELIJAH · 1 KINGS 19:20-21

“So he forsook the oxen and ran after Elijah and said, “Please let me kiss my father and my mother, then I will follow you.” ... Then he arose and followed Elijah and ministered to him.”

JAMES AND JOHN · MATTHEW 4:22

“And immediately they left the boat and their father, and followed Him.”

FROM THE VIDEO The teacher calls this an Elijah-like call to discipleship for Simon, Andrew, James and John.

BACKGROUND Elijah's call of Elisha is the Old Testament's best-known call story: Elisha leaves his oxen and family to follow and serve. Jesus' call is stronger: they leave 'immediately' (4:20, 22), and Jesus Himself, not a prophet's mantle, is the One they follow.

Teaching, preaching, healing

ISAIAH · ISAIAH 35:5-6

“Then the eyes of the blind will be opened, / And the ears of the deaf will be unstopped. / Then the lame will leap like a deer, / And the tongue of the mute will shout for joy.”

MATTHEW · MATTHEW 4:23

“And Jesus was going throughout all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every kind of disease and every kind of sickness among the people.”

FROM THE VIDEO Healing the sick, the demon-oppressed and the paralyzed (4:24) shows Jesus fulfilling the picture in Isaiah 35.

BACKGROUND Matthew repeats this summary almost word for word at 9:35, framing chapters 5-9: Jesus' teaching (chapters 5-7) and His healing (chapters 8-9). When John asks from prison, Jesus answers in Isaiah's words: 'the blind receive sight and the lame walk' (Matthew 11:5). Matthew 9:35 Matthew 11:4-5

THE CROWDS · MATTHEW 4:24-25

From Galilee, the Decapolis and beyond the Jordan

ISAIAH · ISAIAH 42:6

“I am Yahweh, I have called You in righteousness; / I will also take hold of You by the hand and guard You, / And I will give You as a covenant to the people, / As a light to the nations,”

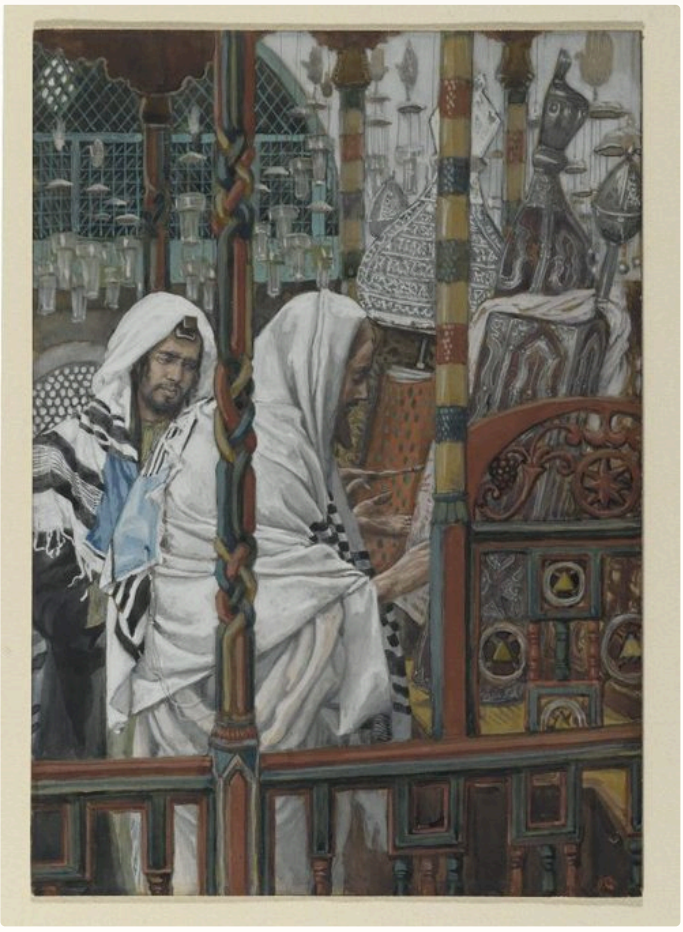

MATTHEW · MATTHEW 4:25

“And large crowds followed Him from Galilee and the Decapolis and Jerusalem and Judea and from beyond the Jordan.”

FROM THE VIDEO The Jordan was a boundary of sorts between Jews and pagans. The Decapolis, 'ten cities,' was largely Gentile and Greek in culture. Matthew is saying the whole world is involved in what Jesus is doing, even though a Jew might expect the Messiah to focus on Israel.

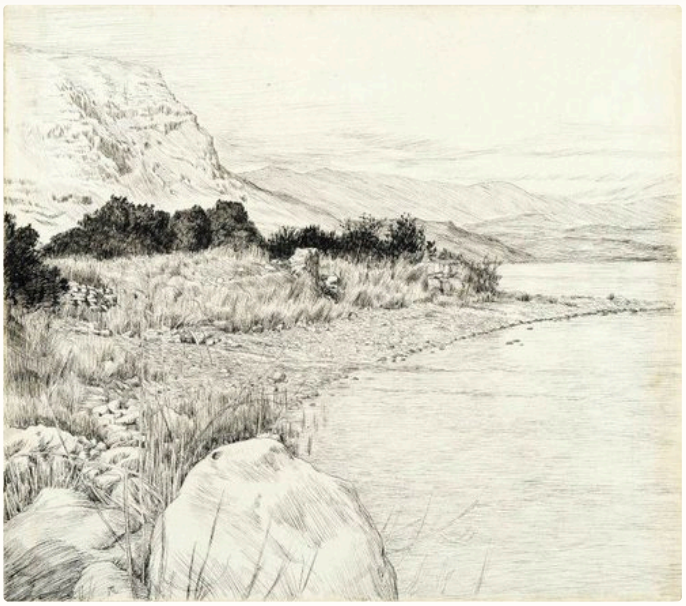

BACKGROUND Isaiah's Servant is 'a light to the nations' (Isaiah 42:6; 49:6). Matthew's Gospel ends where this scene points: 'make disciples of all the nations' (Matthew 28:19). Isaiah 49:6 Matthew 28:18-20

They already knew Him

Why did four fishermen drop everything? The teacher reads John's Gospel alongside Matthew. Here is the order he traces.

STEP 1 · JOHN 1

Andrew follows Jesus on John's word

JOHN 1:36-37 (LSB) BEFORE

"and he looked at Jesus as He walked, and said, "Behold, the Lamb of God!" And the two disciples heard him speak and followed Jesus."

FROM THE VIDEO The first disciples of Jesus were actually John's disciples. One was Andrew, who then found his brother Peter (John 1:40-42). John 1:40-42

STEP 2 · JOHN 2-4

They see Him at work

JOHN 2:11 (LSB) BEFORE

"Jesus did this in Cana of Galilee as the beginning of His signs, and manifested His glory, and His disciples believed in Him."

FROM THE VIDEO John's early chapters show the disciples traveling with Jesus: water into wine, the temple in Jerusalem, Nicodemus, and the woman at the well in Samaria (John 2-4). Matthew leaves all of this out.

BACKGROUND John's Gospel is the only one to describe this early Judean and Samaritan ministry.

STEP 3 · JOHN 4; MATTHEW 4:12

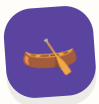

Back to Galilee

JOHN 4:43 (LSB) THEN

"And after the two days He went from there into Galilee."

FROM THE VIDEO This is precisely where Matthew picks it up: 'Now when Jesus heard that John had been taken into custody, He departed into Galilee' (4:12).

BACKGROUND Mark agrees on the timing: 'after John had been delivered up into custody' (Mark 1:14). Luke adds that Jesus taught in Galilee's synagogues, was rejected in Nazareth, and 'came down to Capernaum' (Luke 4:14-31). Mark 1:14 Luke 4:14-31

STEP 4 · MATTHEW 4:18-22

The call by the sea

MATTHEW 4:20 (LSB) THEN

FROM THE VIDEO Read alone, it might seem strange that strangers drop everything. But Simon and Andrew already knew Jesus when He came calling. Why they had gone back to their trade is a question Scripture does not answer.

DEBATED Luke tells a call at the lake with a miraculous catch (Luke 5:1-11). Some read it as the same event told more fully; others as a separate, later moment. Chrysostom calls Matthew's scene 'a second call' after John 1 (see Early witnesses). Luke 5:1-11

Who's who by the lake

What the video says, then a short background note.

Jesus

VIDEO Begins His public ministry far from Jerusalem, in 'Galilee of the Gentiles,' preaching to people in darkness and healing the suffering.

BACKGROUND Matthew uses the same verb, 'departed' (anachōreō), for the holy family's escape from danger (2:14, 22) and for Jesus' later withdrawals (12:15; 14:13). Jesus does not run from His mission; He moves where Isaiah said the light would shine.

Matthew 2:22-23 · Matthew 12:15 · Matthew 14:13 · ◆ Jesus Christ

John the Baptist

VIDEO His arrest marks the start of Jesus' Galilean ministry. Two of his disciples were the first to follow Jesus.

BACKGROUND Herod Antipas 'had John arrested … because of Herodias, the wife of his brother Philip' (Matthew 14:3). Josephus names the fortress of Machaerus, east of the Dead Sea, as the place John was held and killed (Antiquities 18.5.2).

Matthew 14:3-5 · John 1:35-37 · ◆ John the Baptist

Simon Peter and Andrew

VIDEO Brothers and fishermen. Andrew first heard John point to 'the Lamb of God' and followed Jesus, then brought Simon.

BACKGROUND John says Bethsaida was 'the city of Andrew and Peter' (John 1:44); Peter's house is later in Capernaum (Matthew 8:14). Jesus gives Simon the name Cephas, Peter (John 1:42).

John 1:40-44 · Matthew 8:14 · Matthew 16:16-17

James and John, sons of Zebedee

VIDEO Called from mending their nets; they leave the boat and their father 'immediately.'

BACKGROUND Mark adds that they left Zebedee 'in the boat with the hired servants' (Mark 1:20), a detail that suggests a family business with employees. With Peter, they later form the inner three (Matthew 17:1).

Mark 1:19-20 · Matthew 17:1

Isaiah

VIDEO Foresaw this: light for the people in darkness in Galilee. 'It's not as if this is something novel.'

BACKGROUND Isaiah prophesied in Judah in the 8th century BC, as Assyria swallowed the northern tribes. His promise of light (9:1-2) leads straight into the royal Child of 9:6-7.

Isaiah 9:1-7 ◆ Isaiah

The crowds

VIDEO From Galilee, the Decapolis, Jerusalem, Judea and beyond the Jordan: representatives of the nations, not only Israel.

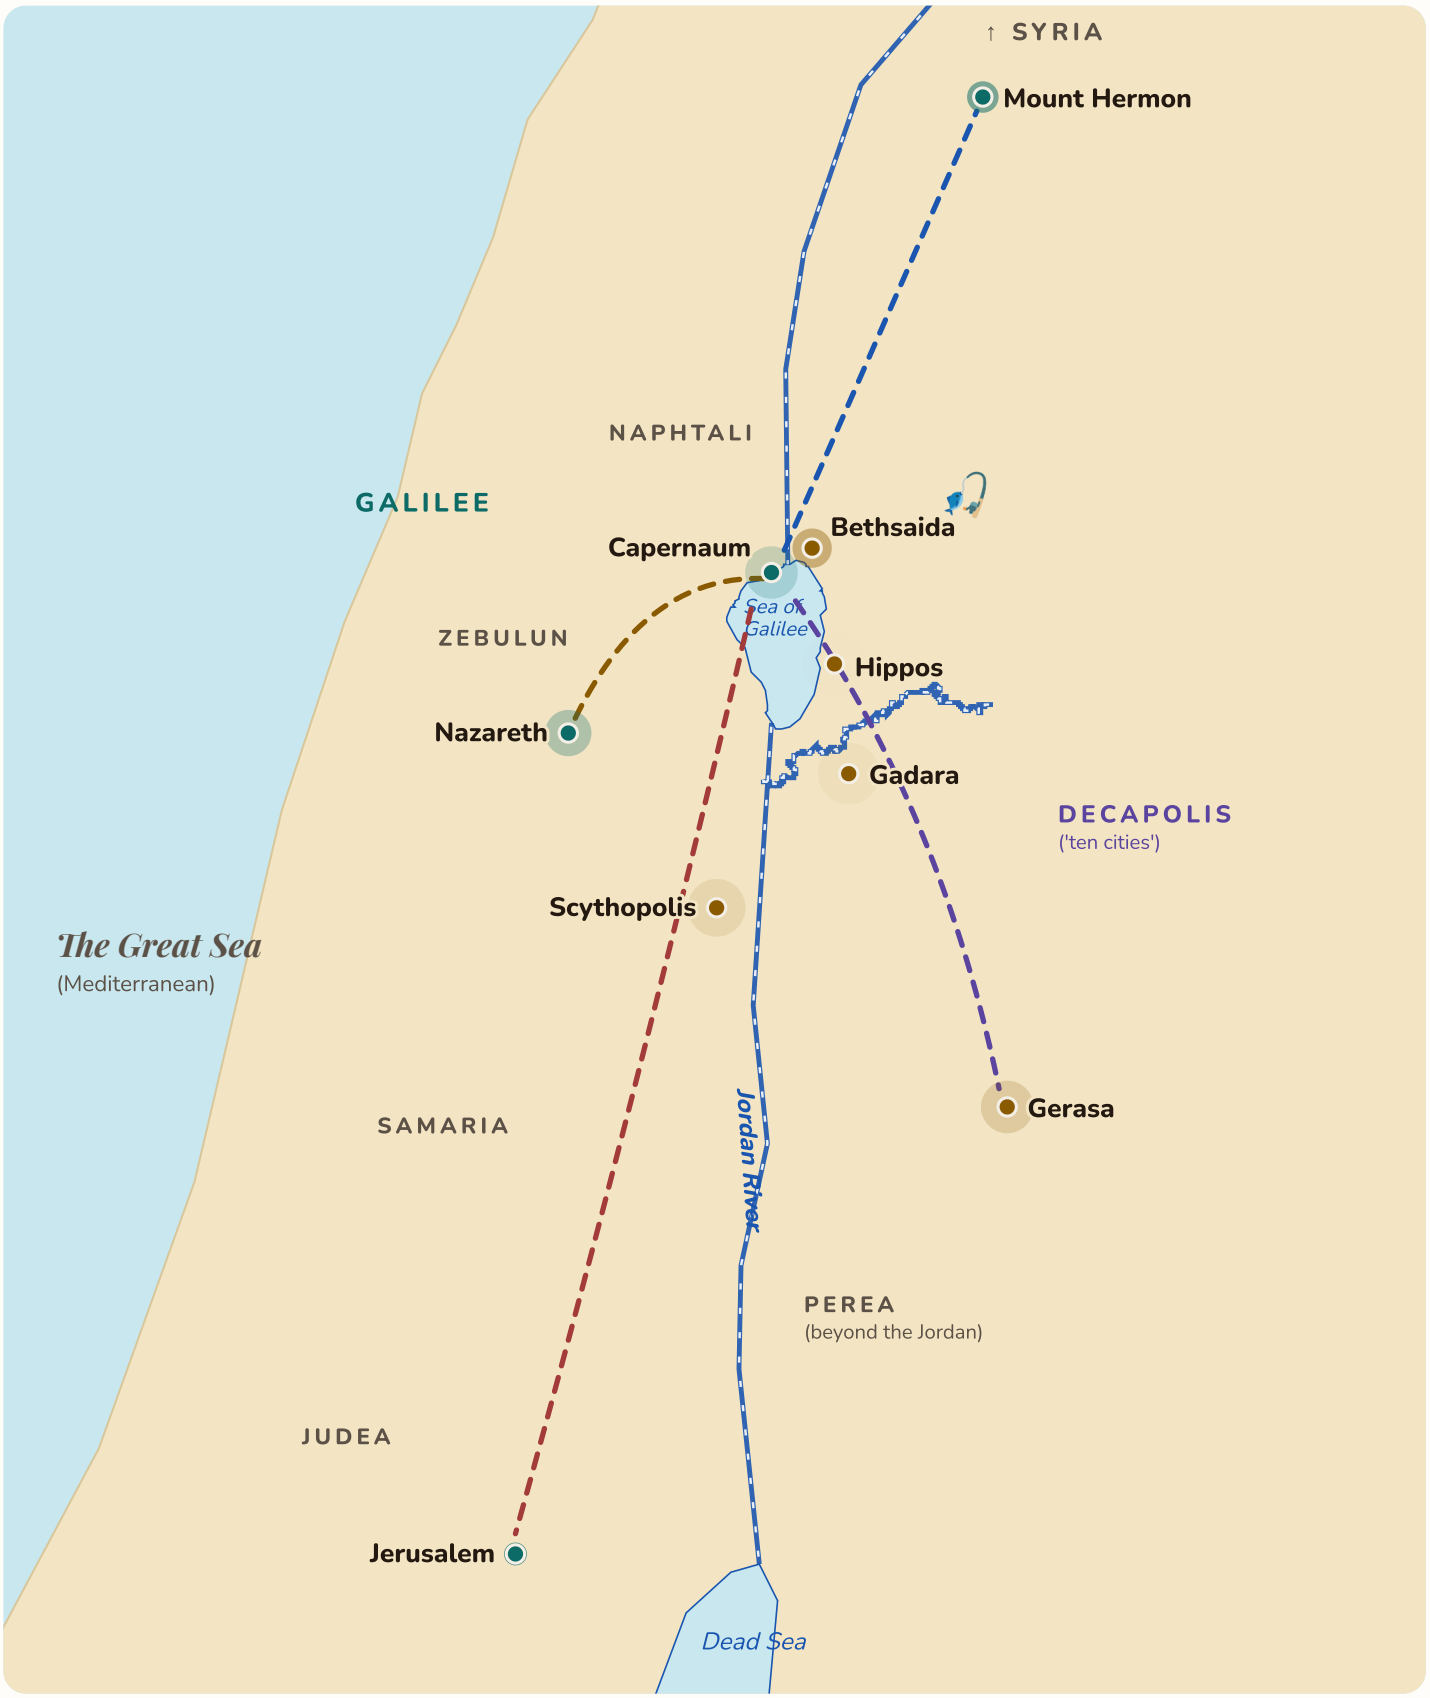

BACKGROUND 'All Syria' (4:24) was the Roman province to the north. Matthew's list maps the four directions of the land around Galilee. The crowds are the ones Jesus sees before He goes up the mountain to teach (5:1).

Historical and cultural background

ESTABLISHED Facts most interpreters agree on

Galilee in Jesus' day

A fertile region of farming villages and fishing towns around the lake, ruled by Herod Antipas (4 BC-AD 39). Archaeology suggests its villages were largely Jewish, surrounded by Gentile neighbors: Phoenician Tyre and Sidon to the northwest, the Decapolis to the east.

Capernaum

A fishing village on the northwest shore. Visitors today see a white limestone synagogue from late antiquity, built on top of an earlier basalt foundation, and an octagonal church over a house many identify as Peter's (Matthew 8:14).

Fishing on the lake

Simon and Andrew were 'casting a net' (4:18), a circular throw-net; James and John were 'mending their nets' (4:21) in a boat with hired servants (Mark 1:20). A first-century fishing boat, about 8 m long, was found in the mud near Ginosar in 1986.

John in prison

Herod Antipas arrested John for condemning his marriage to Herodias (Matthew 14:3-4). Josephus says Herod feared John's influence over the crowds and that John was held at the fortress of Machaerus (Antiquities 18.5.2).

Isaiah 9 in history

In 733/732 BC Tiglath-pileser III of Assyria took 'Galilee, all the land of Naphtali' and deported its people (2 Kings 15:29). Isaiah promised that the same land, first humbled, would be the first to see the light.

SOURCED

Early witnesses

> by darkness here not meaning that which is sensible, but men's errors and ungodliness.

John Chrysostom, c. AD 390. Homilies on Matthew 14, on Matthew 4:16, Nicene and Post-Nicene Fathers, series 1, vol. 10 (public domain). On the move itself he says Jesus withdrew 'to soothe the envy of the Jews' and to teach us 'not to go to meet temptations.'

> And yet John says that they were called in another manner. Whence it is evident that this was a second call; and from many things one may perceive this.

John Chrysostom, c. AD 390. Homilies on Matthew 14, on Matthew 4:18-19 (same source). He notes that in John 1 Andrew calls Peter, 'but here Jesus calls both.'

DEBATED

Where scholars differ

One call or several?

John 1 has Andrew and Simon meeting Jesus in Judea; Matthew and Mark have a call by the lake; Luke 5 adds a miraculous catch. Many, like Chrysostom and the video, see stages: first meeting, then a call to leave their work. Others think Luke 5 and Matthew 4 tell the same moment.

What does 'fishers of men' echo?

Jeremiah 16:16 is the video's key. Because the next verses speak of judgment, some read Jeremiah's fishermen as hauling Israel to account, not gathering them home. Others point to the hopeful fishermen of Ezekiel 47:10, or think Jesus simply plays on their trade.

Why did Jesus go to Galilee?

Matthew's answer is Scripture: to fulfill Isaiah 9. The video adds that Jesus chose to go to those in darkness. Chrysostom stresses prudence: Jesus withdrew from danger after John's arrest. The answers can stand together.

Where was 'the way of the sea'?

The coastal road by the Mediterranean, a road by the Sea of Galilee, or a general phrase for the western district. Matthew's point does not depend on the answer: Jesus' new home 'by the sea' (4:13) puts Him on that road.

CAREFUL READING

Small slips in the video

Small slips worth knowing (offered gently; the video's main points stand):

- The video says Jesus headed back to Galilee 'after the rejection by his own hometown community in Nazareth.' Luke places the Nazareth synagogue scene after Jesus has already returned to Galilee (Luke 4:14-30). John 4:44 says only that 'a prophet has no honor in his own country.'

- The video treats the east side of the Jordan as where 'the pagans lived.' The Decapolis was largely Gentile, but 'beyond the Jordan' (Perea) was mostly Jewish and ruled, like Galilee, by Herod Antipas. And one Decapolis city, Scythopolis, lay west of the Jordan. The point that Gentiles came to hear Jesus still stands.
- Matthew does not quote Isaiah 35 in this passage; the healing summary echoes it. Jesus makes the link Himself later, in Isaiah's words: 'the blind receive sight and the lame walk' (Matthew 11:5).
- On Jeremiah 16:16, the video says the fishermen catch 'the scattered sons of Israel.' Verse 15 does promise return, but verses 17-18 speak of judgment, so the verse is read both ways (see Where scholars differ).
- The captions read 'Matthew 4: 12 to2'; the passage is Matthew 4:12-25.

Reflection and discussion

0 of 5 questions marked done on this device.

1 ☐ The video asks: why didn't Jesus begin in Jerusalem? What do you think, and what does Isaiah 9:1-2 add?

2 ☐ Simon and Andrew already knew Jesus (John 1:35-42) before He called them to leave their nets. What had to happen before they could leave 'immediately'? What is Jesus asking you to leave?

3 ☐ The video's challenge: 'Are you willing to go to the dark places, to the shadow of death?' Name one 'dark place' near you where the gospel and practical care are both needed.

4 ☐ The crowds came from every direction, including Gentile cities. Who are the 'Decapolis' people in your circles that you might not expect to follow Jesus?

5 ☐ Read Jeremiah 16:14-18 and Ezekiel 47:9-10. Which picture of fishermen helps you most to understand 'fishers of men'?

Application

FROM THE VIDEO

Jesus did two things in the land of the shadow of death: He taught and preached the gospel to those dwelling in darkness, and He healed the suffering. The lesson for the original audience: God's people go to dark places, share the gospel, and do what they can to heal. The lesson for you: are you willing to do the same? Not necessarily working miracles, but healing a broken spirit or a broken heart, people hurting from church hurt, past trauma, emotional turmoil and spiritual pain, by giving the gospel and showing the love of Christ.

STUDY NOTE (ADDED)

Jesus' first followers did not start as experts; they started by following: 'Follow Me, and I will make you fishers of men' (4:19). The making is His work. When the crowds later look like 'sheep without a shepherd,' Jesus tells the disciples first to 'pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest' (Matthew 9:36-38). Start there: pray for the people in your own Galilee, then go.
