Short summary

- The teacher reads Matthew 6:19-34: treasures in heaven, the eye as the lamp of the body, two masters, and do not worry: look at the birds and the lilies, and seek first His kingdom and His righteousness.
- It looks like several separate messages, but Jesus is unpacking ideas that run through the whole sermon. The scene has not changed: disciples, with the crowds listening.
- How can disciples live without worry when they have families and responsibilities? Jesus' answer: your heart (6:21) and your eye (6:22).
- 'If your eye is clear' reaches for a Hebrew idiom, the good eye (ayin tovah). God saw that what He made was good (Genesis 1). A good eye looks at people with complete love and sees beauty and potential, the way God called Gideon a mighty man of valor. 'He who is generous' in Proverbs 22:9 is literally 'good of eye.'
- In the video's chiasm, 6:19-34 parallels the end of chapter 5: 'be perfect' (5:48) is answered here. How do I love completely like the Father? Have the Father's good eye. A bad eye looks for the bad and finds it, leading to fear, anxiety and worry.
- The lesson: one key to fulfilling the sermon is to have God's good eye, and that takes trusting Him. The Pharisees had a bad eye and missed the kingdom in front of them. If the Lord has a good eye toward His creation and we mirror Him on earth as in heaven, so should we.

Ask what holds the passage together

At first 6:19-34 looks like four separate sayings: treasure, the eye, two masters, worry. The teacher's question: what single idea joins them, and how do they connect back to chapter 5? Read the passage once looking for the word 'eye' and once looking for 'heart.'

The video reads from another English translation. Quotations on this page are from the LSB.

Treasure, eye, masters, worry

Four sayings that look separate. The video's claim: the heart (6:21) and the eye (6:22) hold them together.

TREASURE · MATTHEW 6:19-21

Where your treasure is

💎 MATTHEW 6:19-21 (LSB)

HEART

“Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy, and where thieves break in and steal. But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys, and where thieves do not break in or steal; for where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.”

FROM THE VIDEO The earthly treasure is food, drink and clothes (6:25). All of it will disappear: moth, rust and thieves. Instead God's people focus on His kingdom and His righteousness, different from the righteousness of the religious leaders.

BACKGROUND 'Destroy' (aphanizō) is the same verb as the fasters who 'neglect their appearance' in 6:16. 'Rust' is literally 'eating' (brōsis). Luke adds: 'Sell your possessions and give it as charity' (Luke 12:33). Luke 12:33-34 Proverbs 23:4-5

◆ Factbook: Kingdom of heaven ◆ Factbook: Righteousness

THE EYE · MATTHEW 6:22-23

The eye is the lamp of the body

👁 MATTHEW 6:22-23 (LSB)

GOOD EYE

“The eye is the lamp of the body; so then if your eye is clear, your whole body will be full of light. But if your eye is bad, your whole body will be full of darkness. If then the light that is in you is darkness, how great is the darkness!”

FROM THE VIDEO My translation says 'healthy,' but Jesus is reaching for something very Jewish: the good eye. If your heart is wrong, your focus will be off; if your eye is not good, you'll end up serving what you should not.

BACKGROUND 'Clear' is haplous (G573): single, sincere. Its noun haplotēs means generosity: 'he who gives, with generosity' (Romans 12:8). 'Bad' is ponēros, 'evil,' as in the 'evil eye' of stinginess. Romans 12:8

TWO MASTERS · MATTHEW 6:24

God or wealth

⚖ MATTHEW 6:24 (LSB)

CHOOSE

“No one can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth.”

FROM THE VIDEO The disciple faces a choice, and Jesus is the one forcing it. It all comes down to which eye you choose to have.

BACKGROUND 'Serve' is douleuō, to serve as a slave. 'Wealth' is mamōnas, an Aramaic word for money and property (older versions: 'mammon'). The evil eye 'hurries after wealth' (Proverbs 28:22). Proverbs 28:22

WORRY · MATTHEW 6:25-34

Look at the birds, observe the lilies

THE BIRDS · MATTHEW 6:26

THE LILIES · MATTHEW 6:28-29

“Look at the birds of the air, that they do not sow, nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not worth much more than they?”

“Observe how the lilies of the field grow; they do not toil nor do they spin, yet I say to you that not even Solomon in all his glory clothed himself like one of these.”

FROM THE VIDEO A bad eye looks for things to fear and mistrust, and finds them; that leads to anxiety, worry and loneliness. That is why Jesus moves from the eye straight to worry.

BACKGROUND God 'gives to the animal its food, / And to the young ravens which call out' (Psalm 147:9). 'All flesh is grass' (Isaiah 40:6). The answer to worry is a priority: 'seek first His kingdom' (6:33). Psalm 147:9 Isaiah 40:6-8 Philippians 4:6-7

Chrysostom: 'For neither did He say, behold how the birds fly, which were a thing impossible to man; but that they are fed without taking thought, a kind of thing easy to be achieved by us also, if we will' (Homilies on Matthew 21).

'Observe how the lilies of the field grow' (6:28)

The Father's good eye

The Old Testament background the video gives for 'if your eye is clear.'

GOD'S GOOD EYE · GENESIS 1

God saw that it was good

DAY THREE · GENESIS 1:10

“and God saw that it was good.”

DAY SIX · GENESIS 1:31

“And God saw all that He had made, and behold, it was very good.”

FROM THE VIDEO The good-eye idea goes back to creation: God saw that what He made was good (Genesis 1:10, 12, 18, 21, 25), culminating in 'very good' (Genesis 1:31). The Jews of Jesus' day understood that because God has a good eye, they should too, in their dealings with each other.

BACKGROUND The Hebrew tov (H2896), 'good,' is the word in the idiom 'good of eye.' Genesis 1:12 Genesis 1:25

◆ Factbook: Garden of Eden ◆ Factbook: Image of God

THE GOOD EYE · PROVERBS 22:9

He who is generous will be blessed

🎁 PROVERBS 22:9 (LSB)

AYIN TOVAH

“He who is generous will be blessed, / For he gives from his food to the poor.”

FROM THE VIDEO In Hebrew, 'whoever has a good eye will be blessed.' If you have God's good eye, you are a generous person with a generous outlook on life. Psalm 18:25: God shows Himself merciful to the merciful. Psalm 18:25

BACKGROUND The Hebrew reads tov-'ayin, literally 'good of eye.' The LSB translates the sense, 'generous.' The verse itself defines it: 'he gives from his food to the poor.'

THE BAD EYE · DEUTERONOMY 15; PROVERBS 28

An evil eye

MOSES · DEUTERONOMY 15:9

“Beware lest there be a vile thought in your heart, saying, ‘The seventh year, the year of the remission of debts, is near,’ and your eye is hostile toward your needy brother, and you give him nothing”

PROVERBS · PROVERBS 28:22

“A man with an evil eye hurries after wealth / And does not know that want will come upon him.”

FROM THE VIDEO The flip side: with a bad eye you look for the bad in the world and in other people, instead of beauty and potential. And you end up finding it.

BACKGROUND In Scripture the 'evil eye' is above all stinginess: a hostile eye toward the needy (Deuteronomy 15:9), an eye that 'hurries after wealth' (Proverbs 28:22). Jesus uses the idiom later: 'Or is your eye envious because I am generous?' (Matthew 20:15), literally 'is your eye evil?' Matthew 20:1-16 Proverbs 23:6

SEEING POTENTIAL · JUDGES 6; 1 SAMUEL 13

A mighty man of valor, a man after His heart

TO GIDEON · JUDGES 6:12

“Yahweh is with you, O mighty man of valor.”

OF DAVID · 1 SAMUEL 13:14

“Yahweh has sought out for Himself a man after His own heart”

FROM THE VIDEO The good eye overlooks the flaw to see the value and potential in all people. That is why God can call a coward like Gideon 'a mighty man of valor,' and an adulterer and murderer like David 'a man after My heart.'

BACKGROUND Gideon was hiding, threshing wheat in a wine press (Judges 6:11), when the angel called him valiant. Paul repeats God's words about David in Acts 13:22. Judges 6:11 Acts 13:22

Across the sermon's center

The video sees the sermon as a chiasm with the Lord's Prayer at its center, so this passage mirrors the end of chapter 5. Here are the links it draws, in the LSB.

THE VIDEO'S PROPOSED MIRROR (A DEBATED LAYOUT)

- A 5:14 You are the light of the world.
  - B 5:48 Therefore you are to be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect.
    - X 6:10 On earth as it is in heaven.
  - B' 6:22 The eye is the lamp of the body; so then if your eye is clear, your whole body will be full of light.
- A' 6:23 If then the light that is in you is darkness, how great is the darkness!

'Be perfect' (5:48) raises the question; the good eye (6:22) answers it. Lamp and light (5:14-16) return in 6:22-23.

> If we have God's good eye, we will find the beauty and the potential that we seek in others, which is the key to giving love.

Seeing and not seeing

The video points ahead: the good eye and the bad eye become a theme in Matthew.

A RECURRING THEME · MATTHEW 13

Seeing, they do not see

MATTHEW 13:13 (LSB)

LATER

“Therefore I speak to them in parables; because while seeing they do not see, and while hearing they do not hear, nor do they understand.”

FROM THE VIDEO Truly seeing with the eye becomes a recurring theme for Jesus. We'll highlight it as we read on.

THE BAD EYE · MATTHEW 15

Blind guides of the blind

MATTHEW 15:14 (LSB)

LATER

“Let them alone; they are blind guides of the blind. And if a blind man guides a blind man, both will fall into a pit.”

FROM THE VIDEO These people could not see because they had a bad eye, and it caused them to miss the kingdom of heaven unfolding in front of them. The sermon's clash of disciples and Pharisees is, in one sense, a battle between the good eye and the bad eye.

BACKGROUND In Matthew 23 Jesus calls the scribes and Pharisees blind five times: 'blind guides,' 'blind men,' 'blind Pharisee' (23:16, 17, 19, 24, 26). Matthew 23:16-26

Historical and cultural background

ESTABLISHED Facts most interpreters agree on

Wealth in the ancient world

With no banks for ordinary people, wealth meant fine clothing, stored grain and buried coins: all open to moths, rot and thieves who 'break in' (literally 'dig through') mud-brick walls.

How eyes were thought to work

Many ancient writers thought the eye gave out light rather than only receiving it. Jesus' picture fits that world: the eye is a lamp; what kind of eye you have decides whether you are full of light or darkness.

The good eye and evil eye

Proverbs uses both phrases (22:9; 23:6; 28:22). Later Jewish teaching kept the idiom: the Mishnah lists 'a good eye' among the marks of Abraham's disciples and 'an evil eye' among Balaam's (Avot 5:19).

Lilies and grass in the oven

In spring the Galilean hills are covered with red anemones, poppies and other wildflowers. Dried grass and stalks were used as quick fuel for clay ovens: 'tomorrow is thrown into the furnace' (6:30).

SOURCED Early witnesses

> "for just what the eye is to the body, the same is the mind to the soul.
> John Chrysostom, c. AD 390. Homilies on Matthew 20, on 6:22-23. Nicene and Post-Nicene Fathers, series 1, vol. 10 (public domain). Chrysostom reads the eye as the mind, blinded by love of wealth.

> "The cleansing of the heart, then, is as it were the cleansing of the eye by which God is seen; and in keeping that single, there ought to be as great care as the dignity of the object demands

Augustine of Hippo, c. AD 393. On the Sermon on the Mount, Book 2. Nicene and Post-Nicene Fathers, series 1, vol. 6 (public domain). Augustine reads the 'single' eye as an undivided heart.

DEBATED

Where scholars differ

What is a 'clear' eye?

Generous (the Hebrew good-eye idiom, as the video says); single-minded and undivided toward God (Augustine; the verse sits between 'treasure' and 'two masters'); or simply healthy, a picture of the mind (Chrysostom). The ideas overlap: an undivided heart is a generous one.

Does 6:19-34 mirror the end of chapter 5?

Part of the video's whole-sermon chiasm, which it offers as a proposal. Others read 6:19-7:12 as a series of sayings on trust and possessions, framed by 'the Law and the Prophets' (5:17; 7:12).

'A cubit to his life span'

The word can mean stature (height) or age (life span). Most modern versions read life span; either way, worry adds nothing.

What were the 'lilies'?

Suggestions include anemones, crocuses and wild lilies; the word probably covers wildflowers in general.

CAREFUL READING

Small slips in the video

Small slips worth knowing (offered gently; the video's main points stand):

- The video says Jesus explains the earthly treasure 'in verse 2'; it means 6:25 (food, drink, clothing). Likewise 'chapter 5:1 16' is 5:16.
- The video says the Greek 'muddles' the Hebrew idiom. Matthew's haplous ('clear') has its own link to generosity: its noun haplotēs means generosity (Romans 12:8), so the Greek supports the video's point.
- God called David 'a man after His own heart' in 1 Samuel 13:14, before David's adultery and murder; Acts 13:22 repeats it later. God's good eye toward David still stands.
- Psalm 18:25 in the LSB reads 'With the kind You show Yourself kind'; 'merciful' is from other versions.
- The good eye is one of several readings of 6:22 (see Where scholars differ). The video itself adds that this is not 'purely about having a good outlook on life'; regeneration by the Spirit and repentance underlie it.

Reflection and discussion

0 of 6 questions marked done on this device.

1 ☐ Where is your treasure right now? What do your calendar and bank statement say about where your heart is?

2 ☐ Think of someone you find hard to love. What would it look like to see them with God's good eye, the way He saw Gideon?

3 ☐ The video says, 'You always end up finding what you're looking for.' Where are you looking for the bad, and finding it?

4 ☐ Which worry from 6:25-34 (food, drink, clothing, tomorrow) speaks to you most? What would 'seek first His kingdom' look like there?

5 ☐ How does a bad eye lead to fear, anxiety and loneliness? Have you seen that in yourself or in our culture?

6 ☐ The video asks how this lesson applies to you in your situation. Write one sentence.

15

Application

FROM THE VIDEO

The lesson for the original audience, centered on the how: one of the keys to fulfilling the Sermon on the Mount and being God's kingdom spreaders is to have God's good eye, and to have it, people must trust in Him. Remember the center of the Lord's Prayer: 'on earth as it is in heaven.' If the Lord has a good eye toward His creation and we are to mirror Him on earth, so should we. The same lesson applies the good eye in Proverbs 22:9 is practical: 'he gives from his food to the poor.' This week, practice it twice: thank God by name for one good thing you see in a difficult person, and give something away before you have time to worry about it.

STUDY NOTE (ADDED)

to you today; keep thinking about how it applies in your situation.
