Short summary

- The teacher reads Matthew 9:18-38: a synagogue official's daughter raised, a woman healed when she touches the fringe of Jesus' garment, two blind men and a mute man healed, the Pharisees' accusation, and Jesus' compassion for crowds 'like sheep without a shepherd.' Mark 5:21-43 and Luke 8:40-56 give more detail; Mark and Luke name the official Jairus.
- Matthew highlights faith: the official believes Jesus can raise his daughter, the woman reaches for His garment, and the blind men cry out. 'According to your faith' (9:29) means 'because you believe,' not 'in proportion to how much you believe.'
- After the sermon (chapters 5-7), Jesus teaches, works miracles and walks out His own teaching at once. Like a good rabbi who taught from what was in view, He uses each miracle as a lesson about who He is. Raising the dead fits Isaiah 26:19, and later Jesus points John to His deeds (11:5).
- The woman takes hold of the fringe: the video proposes one of the tassels (tzitzit) commanded in Numbers 15 and Deuteronomy 22. Malachi 4:2 promises the sun of righteousness 'with healing in its wings,' and the Hebrew kanaph means both wing and the corner of a garment. The video's reading: she was confessing Jesus as Messiah, and He praised her faith.
- Seeing the crowds, Jesus is moved with compassion: they are like sheep without a shepherd. That points to

> "The miracles that Jesus performed were opportunities for Jesus to teach."
> From the video (auto-captions, lightly cleaned)

> "Pay attention to the things that are odd in the Bible. They're odd for a reason."
> From the video (auto-captions, lightly cleaned)

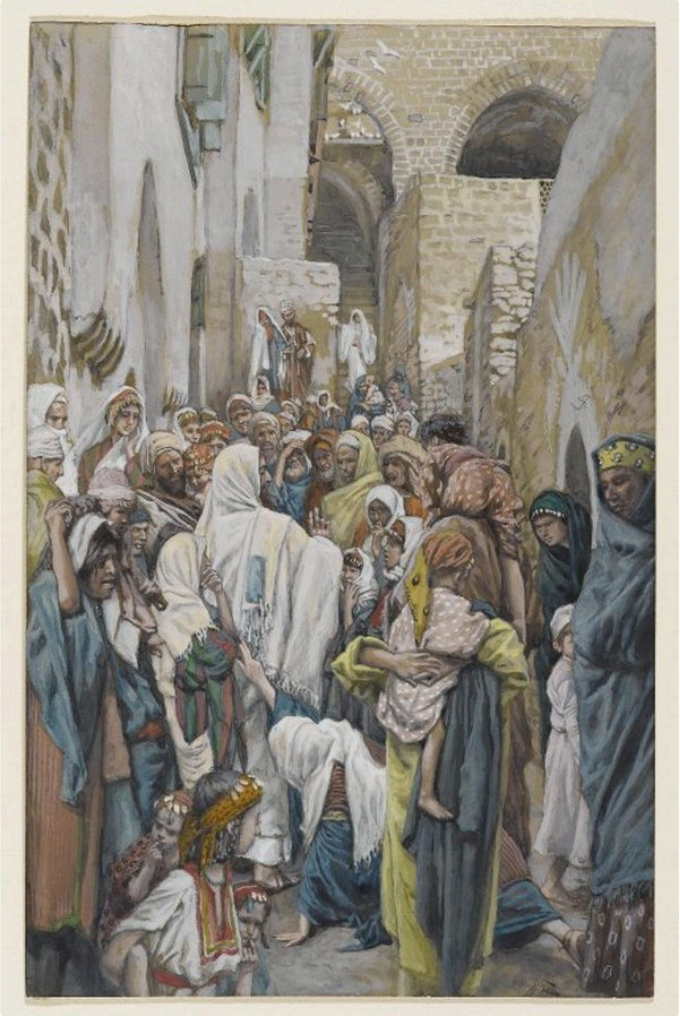

Ezekiel 34, where God indicts Israel's shepherds, promises to seek His sheep Himself, and sets 'My servant David' over them. Israel is also God's vineyard (Isaiah 5). Jesus is the Good Shepherd come to rescue His flock and reap His harvest.

- The lesson: Jesus' disciples must share His deep compassion and concern for the spiritual care of the harassed and helpless, expressed especially in how they pray. Is praying for the lost part of your prayer life?

Read the parallels

The teacher's tip: these accounts get more detail in Mark 5:21-43, Luke 8:40-56 and Luke 11:14-15. And as you read anywhere in Scripture, pay attention to the things that are odd: they are odd for a reason.

The video reads from another English translation. Quotations on this page are from the LSB.

Scripture passages covered

The video reads all of Matthew 9:18-38, points to the parallels in Mark and Luke, and follows Jesus back into Numbers, Deuteronomy, Isaiah, Ezekiel and Malachi. Each link opens those verses on read.lsbible.org.

Matthew 9:18-38
Read in full: the official's daughter, the woman, two blind men, a mute man, and the harvest.

Mark 5:21-43
Mark's account: Jairus, 'Who touched My garments?', 'Talitha kum!'

Luke 8:40-56
Luke's account: an only daughter about twelve years old.

Luke 11:14-15
The mute man and the charge of Beelzebul.

Isaiah 26:19
'Your dead will live; their corpses will rise.'

Numbers 15:37-41
Tassels on the corners of their garments, to remember the commandments.

Deuteronomy 22:12
Tassels on the four corners of the garment.

Malachi 4:1-6
The sun of righteousness will rise with healing in its wings.

Ezekiel 34:1-31
Woe to the shepherds; God Himself will seek His sheep; My servant David.

John 10:1-18
'I am the good shepherd.'

Isaiah 5:1-7
God's vineyard produced worthless grapes.

Luke 10:1-2
Seventy more sent out: 'The harvest is plentiful.'

Matthew 10:1-15
Coming next: Jesus sends out the Twelve.

FAITH

“While He was saying these things to them, behold, a synagogue official came and was bowing down before Him, and said, “My daughter has just died; but come and lay Your hand on her, and she will live.””

FROM THE VIDEO Matthew highlights faith in each scene. The official believes Jesus can bring his daughter back from death. Mark and Luke name him Jairus. Mark 5:22-23 Luke 8:41-42

BACKGROUND A synagogue official arranged services and readings. Turning to Jesus would have cost him standing with some colleagues.

👁 MATTHEW 9:28-29 (LSB)

SON OF DAVID

“And when He entered the house, the blind men came up to Him, and Jesus said to them, “Do you believe that I am able to do this?” They said to Him, “Yes, Lord.” Then He touched their eyes, saying, “It shall be done to you according to your faith.””

FROM THE VIDEO Jesus does not answer them on the road; He waits until they come to Him in the house. 'According to your faith' is not about the quality or quantity of faith: it means 'because of the faith you have.'

FROM THE VIDEO Strangely, He tells them, 'See that no one knows about this!' (9:30), yet He does not stop the news of His other miracles. The teacher leaves it as something to notice.

BACKGROUND 'Son of David' is a royal, messianic title (2 Samuel 7:12-16). Crowds asked it again in 12:23, and the Pharisees answered with the same accusation as in 9:34. 2 Samuel 7:12-16 Matthew 12:23-24

SPLIT

“And after the demon was cast out, the mute man spoke; and the crowds marveled, saying, “Nothing like this has ever been seen in Israel.” But the Pharisees were saying, “He casts out the demons by the ruler of the demons.””

FROM THE VIDEO In the first century 'mute' could mean someone who could not speak, or someone who could neither speak nor hear.

BACKGROUND The Greek kōphos covers both meanings: 'mute' here, 'deaf' in 11:5.

JESUS · MATTHEW 11:5

“the blind receive sight and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have the gospel preached to them.”

FROM THE VIDEO A good rabbi never taught in the abstract; he pointed to what was in view. Jesus uses each miracle to teach about Himself: forgiving the paralytic (9:2-6), and now raising the dead, which Isaiah's song of salvation looked for.

FROM THE VIDEO When John's disciples later ask, 'Are You the One who is to come?' (11:3), Jesus answers by pointing to these very deeds. Matthew 11:2-6

“And behold, a woman who had been suffering from a hemorrhage for twelve years, came up behind Him and touched the fringe of His garment; for she was saying to herself, “If I only touch His garment, I will be saved from this.” But Jesus turning and seeing her said, “Daughter, take courage; your faith has saved you.” At once the woman was saved from her hemorrhage.”

FROM THE VIDEO She did not reach for any spot. She grabbed the fringe of His garment, likely one of His tassels; she may even have pulled one loose, which helps explain how Jesus felt it. Mark 5:30 Luke 8:46

BACKGROUND Under the Law her condition made her unclean, as a corpse did for anyone who touched it (Leviticus 15:25; Numbers 19:11). Contact made a person unclean for a time; the Law did not forbid it. Here power flows the other way: she is made well.

And it shall be a tassel for you to look at and remember all the commandments of Yahweh, so as to do them and not follow after your own heart and your own eyes,”

FROM THE VIDEO Jewish men wore tassels on the four corners of the outer garment, to remember the Lord's commandments and not follow their own heart and eyes, as in the first sin in the garden. Genesis 3:6

BACKGROUND Jesus later says the scribes and Pharisees 'lengthen the tassels of their garments' to be noticed (23:5). In 14:36 the sick at Gennesaret beg to touch just the fringe of His garment. Matthew 23:5 Matthew 14:36

Healing in its wings

MALACHI 4:2 (LSB) KANAPH
“But for you who fear My name, the sun of righteousness will rise with healing in its wings; and you will go forth and skip about like calves from the stall.”

FROM THE VIDEO The Hebrew for 'wings' (kanaph) is the same word used for the 'corners' that carry the tassels in Numbers 15:38 and Deuteronomy 22:12. The video reads 'the sun of righteousness' as the Messiah: He will bring healing in the fringe of His garment.

FROM THE VIDEO So when the woman grabbed Jesus' tassel, the video says, she was proclaiming that He was the long-awaited Messiah. Jesus knew it, and praised her faith: another teachable moment.

Sheep without a shepherd

Ezekiel 34, compassion, and a surprising command to pray.

COMPASSION · MATTHEW 9:35-36

Sheep without a shepherd

MATTHEW 9:35-36 (LSB)

COMPASSION

“And Jesus was going through all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every kind of disease and every kind of sickness. And seeing the crowds, He felt compassion for them, because they were distressed and downcast like sheep without a shepherd.”

FROM THE VIDEO Verse 35 nearly repeats 4:23. The teacher asks why Matthew repeats it, and leaves it for you to work out.

Matthew 4:23

FROM THE VIDEO 'Felt compassion' is a gut-level word. In Matthew's narrative it is always Jesus who feels it (14:14; 15:32; 20:34).

Matthew 14:14 | Matthew 15:32 | Matthew 20:34

BACKGROUND Moses prayed that Israel would not be 'like sheep which have no shepherd' (Numbers 27:17); Micaiah saw Israel scattered that way (1 Kings 22:17). Numbers 27:17 | 1 Kings 22:17

“Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel. Prophesy and say to those shepherds, ‘Thus says Lord Yahweh, “Woe, shepherds of Israel who have been shepherding themselves! Should not the shepherds shepherd the flock?”

GOD'S PROMISE · EZEKIEL 34:11

“For thus says Lord Yahweh, “Behold, I Myself will seek My sheep and care for them.”

FROM THE VIDEO Read the whole chapter: it is a serious indictment of Israel's leaders. They fed themselves, not the flock (34:5-6, 10). So the Lord promises to be their shepherd Himself. Ezekiel 34:5-10

FROM THE VIDEO He also promises 'one shepherd, My servant David' (34:23), written centuries after David died: a pointer to the coming Messiah. Jesus calls Himself the good shepherd (John 10:11). Ezekiel 34:23 John 10:11

THE HARVEST · MATTHEW 9:37-38

Pray to the Lord of the harvest

MATTHEW 9:37-38 (LSB) PRAY

“Then He said to His disciples, “The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. Therefore pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out workers into His harvest.””

FROM THE VIDEO The odd part: instead of 'so go and reap it,' Jesus says pray. The harvest already belongs to the Lord. In chapter 10 He will send workers; for now He teaches them to pray earnestly.

FROM THE VIDEO God's people are pictured as sheep and as a vineyard (Isaiah 5:4, 7). Jesus takes up both pictures: now is the time to shepherd His people and reap His harvest. Isaiah 5:1-7

FROM THE VIDEO The teacher thinks more than the Twelve heard this: Luke 10 has seventy more sent out, with the same words about the harvest. Luke 10:1-2

Historical and cultural background

ESTABLISHED Facts most interpreters agree on

Tassels on the corners

Numbers 15 and Deuteronomy 22 command tassels on the four corners of the outer garment, with a cord of blue. Jews still wear tzitzit on a prayer shawl or an undergarment.

Mourning with flutes

Families hired flute-players and wailing women for funerals. The Mishnah records Rabbi Judah's rule: 'even the poorest man in Israel must provide no less than two flutes and one lamenting woman' (Mishnah Ketubot 4:4).

Clean and unclean

A flow of blood made a woman unclean, and touching a corpse made a person unclean for seven

Shepherds of Israel

Prophets called Israel's kings, priests and leaders 'shepherds.' Ezekiel 34 condemns them for feeding days (Leviticus 15:25; Numbers 19:11). Uncleanness barred people from the temple and holy food until cleansing, but touching was not a sin.

DEBATED

Where scholars differ

Why the fringe?

The video: she grabbed a tassel because Malachi 4:2 promised healing in the Messiah's 'wings.' Others: the fringe was simply the edge she could reach from behind in a crowd. Matthew does not say; in 14:36 many others touch the fringe too.

Why tell the blind men to keep quiet?

Perhaps to avoid stirring up political hopes tied to 'Son of David,' or to keep crowds from hindering His work. Mark shows this pattern often. The teacher simply flags it as odd.

Who are the workers?

Chrysostom: the Twelve, made 'many' by power. The video: a wider circle of disciples, as in Luke 10's seventy. Both agree the first step is prayer.

Faith and healing

Jesus praises faith here, yet He also heals people who show none (8:28-34). 'According to your faith' is not a formula for measuring faith.

CAREFUL READING

Small slips in the video

Small slips worth knowing (offered gently; the video's main points stand):

- Caption names and references: 'Gyrus' is Jairus, named in Mark 5:22 and Luke 8:41 (Matthew calls him a synagogue official in the LSB); 'Matthew 5... verse 30' is Mark 5:30; and Malachi's figure is the 'sun of righteousness' (Malachi 4:2), not 'son.'

- In Matthew the woman touches Jesus; He takes the girl by the hand (9:25) and touches the blind men's eyes (9:29). The Law did not forbid touching what was unclear; contact made a person unclean for a time (Leviticus 15:25-27; Numbers 19:11).
- In Matthew's narrative only Jesus 'feels compassion,' but in His parables He uses the same verb for the master (18:27), the Samaritan (Luke 10:33) and the father of the lost son (Luke 15:20).
- Malachi does not mention the Messiah's garment, and reading the woman's touch as a confession is the video's interpretation. The Gospels do not say why she chose the fringe.
- Luke 10:1 reads 'seventy' in the LSB; some manuscripts read seventy-two. The video's 'Isaiah 5:4' fits the worthless grapes; the bloodshed and cry are in 5:7.

Reflection and discussion

0 of 6 questions marked done on this device.

1 ☐ The official, the woman and the blind men each showed faith differently. Which one is most like you?

2 ☐ What 'odd' detail in this passage stood out to you, and what might it be teaching?

3 ☐ How does knowing Numbers 15 and Malachi 4 change how you picture the woman reaching for the fringe?

4 ☐ Jesus saw the crowds 'through the lens of Tanakh.' What would it look like for you to see people that way?

5 ☐ Who around you is 'distressed and downcast'? Name them before God this week.

6 ☐ Is praying for the lost an active part of your prayer, alone and with others?

14

Application

FROM THE VIDEO

The lesson for the original audience: the disciples of Jesus must share His deep compassion and concern for the spiritual care of the harassed and the helpless. That compassion shows in their interactions with people, but especially in how they pray. When the crowds came, Jesus did not just see a crowd; He saw Ezekiel 34, sheep without a shepherd, and was moved at the gut level. Before He sends anyone out, He tells them to pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest. For the prayer warriors that comes easily; for the doers who want to fix things now, it is a real challenge. If Jesus wants His disciples to pray for the lost, is that what you are doing, alone and with your brothers and sisters? Think about how this applies to your life so that you can do something about it.

STUDY NOTE (ADDED)

write down three people who seem 'distressed and downcast like sheep without a shepherd' (9:36). Pray Matthew 9:38 for them by name each day this week, and ask the Lord of the harvest whether you are one of the workers He wants to send.
