Short summary

- The teacher reads Matthew 16:1-20. Pharisees and Sadducees come together to test Jesus and ask for a sign from heaven. He says they can read the sky but not the signs of the times, and no sign will be given but the sign of Jonah. In the boat He warns the disciples about the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees, which they finally understand is their teaching. At Caesarea Philippi He asks, 'But who do you say that I am?' Peter answers, 'You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.'
- The two parties usually disagreed; the video compares it to Republicans and Democrats coming together. Since the Pharisees were already plotting to destroy Him (12:14), the request is not in good faith. Mark adds that He was 'sighing deeply in His spirit' (Mark 8:12).
- The signs of the times are Jesus' own teaching and miracles, which were meant to deepen trust in God (Exodus 4; Isaiah 45:2-3). The sign of Jonah was already explained in chapter 12.
- Location matters: Caesarea Philippi sat at the base of Mount Hermon, a site of Baal worship and later of the god Pan, which the video says the Romans understood to be the gates of hell. The keys of the kingdom recall the key of the house of David (Isaiah 22:22); binding and loosing is a Hebrew idiom the video will unpack later.
- The lesson: Jesus' expectation of His holy church is that they will be aggressive warriors against all aspects of hell and its activity. To spread God's kingdom is not to remove yourself from sinners but to lean in, as Israel was

Notice who moves where

The teacher tracks Jesus' movements: He leaves the Pharisees and Sadducees (16:4), then takes His disciples to a pagan shrine before naming His church. Location is important, so read the place as part of the lesson.

The video reads from another English translation. Quotations on this page are from the LSB.

Scripture passages covered

The video reads all of Matthew 16:1-20 and turns to Matthew 12, Mark 8, Jonah 1, Exodus 4, Isaiah 22 and 45, and Ezekiel 47. Each link opens those verses on read.lsbible.org.

Matthew 16:1-20
Read in full: a sign from heaven, the leaven, and Peter's confession.

Matthew 12:14
The Pharisees plot to destroy Him.

Matthew 12:38-42
The sign of Jonah, Nineveh and the Queen of the South.

Mark 8:11-21
He sighed deeply; the leaven of Herod.

Jonah 1:17
Three days and three nights in the fish.

Exodus 4:1-9
Signs so that they may believe.

Isaiah 45:1-3
So that you may know that it is I, Yahweh.

Isaiah 22:20-23
The key of the house of David.

Ezekiel 47:1-12
Healing waters and fishermen.

Matthew 16:21-28
Coming next: the first passion prediction and the cross.

A sign from heaven and the leaven

Strange allies, the signs of the times, Jonah, and the teaching to beware.

MATTHEW 16:1; 12:14

Strange allies, bad faith

MATTHEW · MATTHEW 16:1
"And the Pharisees and Sadducees came, and testing Him, they asked Him to show them a sign from heaven."

EARLIER · MATTHEW 12:14
"But going out, the Pharisees took counsel together against Him, as to how they might destroy Him."

FROM THE VIDEO The Pharisees and Sadducees were typically divided; the video compares it to Republicans and Democrats coming together. They now have a common enemy.

FROM THE VIDEO Since the Pharisees were already plotting to destroy Him, their request for a sign is not in good faith.

Red skies and the signs of the times

MATTHEW 16:2-3 (LSB) SIGNS

“But He replied to them, “When it is evening, you say, ‘It will be fair weather, for the sky is red.’ And in the morning, ‘There will be a storm today, for the sky is red and threatening.’ Do you know how to discern the appearance of the sky, but cannot discern the signs of the times?”

FROM THE VIDEO 'Signs of the times' is often used for end-times matters, but here, the video says, it simply refers to Jesus' own teaching and miracles in the first century.

FROM THE VIDEO Signs were given to deepen trust in God (Exodus 4, 7 and 14; Isaiah 45:2-3), 'So that you may know that it is I, / Yahweh, the God of Israel, who calls you by your name' (Isaiah 45:3). Exodus 4:5 Isaiah 45:3

JONAH · JONAH 1:17

“And Yahweh appointed a great fish to swallow Jonah, and Jonah was in the stomach of the fish three days and three nights.”

FROM THE VIDEO This is the same answer Jesus gave in Matthew 12. There He spoke of the Ninevites and the Queen of the South, who recognized what God was doing; these leaders do not.

“How is it that you do not understand that I did not speak to you concerning bread? But beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees.” Then they understood that He did not say to beware of the leaven of bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.”

FROM THE VIDEO 'Does this sound familiar? We just went over this.' Jesus again points to the loaves and baskets (16:9-10). Leaven is teaching that spreads through the whole lump.

At the gates

Caesarea Philippi, Hermon, Peter's confession, and fishermen by a healed sea.

MATTHEW 16:13

Caesarea Philippi, at the foot of Hermon

MATTHEW 16:13 (LSB)

LOCATION

“Now when Jesus came into the district of Caesarea Philippi, He was asking His disciples, saying, “Who do people say that the Son of Man is?””

FROM THE VIDEO Caesarea Philippi was built by Philip the tetrarch at the base of Mount Hermon. Hermon, the video says, was a contentious site for Jews in the first century.

BACKGROUND Luke names 'his brother Philip' as tetrarch of Ituraea and Trachonitis (Luke 3:1). Philip rebuilt the town at the springs called Paneas and named it for Caesar. Luke 3:1

◆ Factbook: Philip the tetrarch (Herod Philip II) ◆ Factbook: Mount Hermon

HERMON'S DARK HISTORY

Baal, then Pan

FROM THE VIDEO Many believed the sons of God who desired the daughters of men (Genesis 6) descended on Mount Hermon. Canaanites and Phoenicians worshiped Baal there; after the Greeks and Romans, it became a shrine to the god Pan.

FROM THE VIDEO The video says the Romans understood Mount Hermon, and by extension Caesarea Philippi, to be the gates of hell. Jesus takes His disciples right to that spot to teach them about His identity and the church's purpose.

BACKGROUND The descent on Hermon is told in 1 Enoch 6, not in Genesis. The cave and niches of Pan's shrine can still be seen at Banias.

You are the Christ

MATTHEW 16:16-18 (LSB) CONFESSION

“And Simon Peter answered and said, “You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.” And Jesus answered and said to him, “Blessed are you, Simon Bar-Jonah, because flesh and blood did not reveal this to you, but My Father who is in heaven. And I also say to you that you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build My church; and the gates of Hades will not overpower it.”

FROM THE VIDEO Notice the language: it is not Jesus' church that fails to prevail. 'Prevail' means to have the strength to withstand; it is hell itself that will not withstand the church.

BACKGROUND Peter (Petros) and rock (petra) are a wordplay. Whether the rock is Peter, his confession, or Christ Himself has long been debated; the video does not settle it here.

JESUS · MATTHEW 4:19

“And He *said to them, “Follow Me, and I will make you fishers of men.””

FROM THE VIDEO Israel was supposed to bless the nations, reclaiming them from idol worship. In Ezekiel's vision the river from the temple heals the sea, and the fish stand for the nations.

The keys of the kingdom

Isaiah's key of David, binding and loosing, and the church's calling.

MATTHEW 16:19; ISAIAH 22:22

The key of the house of David

JESUS · MATTHEW 16:19

"I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven; and whatever you bind on earth shall have been bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall have been loosed in heaven.""

ISAIAH · ISAIAH 22:22

"Then I will set the key of the house of David on his shoulder, / When he opens no one will shut, / When he shuts no one will open."

FROM THE VIDEO The key in Isaiah is God-given authority to let people into the city or not. The Lord speaks of a new leader who will open and shut the gates of Jerusalem, which also stands for the city of God.

🔗 MATTHEW 18:18 (LSB) IDIOM

“Truly I say to you, whatever you bind on earth shall have been bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall have been loosed in heaven.”

FROM THE VIDEO The video calls this a Hebrew idiomatic expression and says much of what Christians say about it is incorrect. It promises to unpack it later.

BACKGROUND Jesus repeats the words to all the disciples in 18:18. Many scholars note that later rabbinic writings use 'bind' and 'loose' for forbidding and permitting.

From corrupt leaders to the gates of hell

FROM THE VIDEO Picture the contrast: Yahweh's religious leaders don't know Him, so Jesus leaves them. Then He takes His disciples to the gates of hell and tells them precisely what God's people are supposed to do.

FROM THE VIDEO If your goal is to look clean and keep away from pagans, this is a problem. That, the video says, is why the religious leaders of the first century struggled with Jesus.

THE LESSON

Aggressive warriors against hell

FROM THE VIDEO Jesus' expectation of His people, that is His holy church, is that they will be aggressive warriors against all aspects of hell and its activity.

Historical and cultural background

ESTABLISHED Facts most interpreters agree on

Paneas and Pan

At the foot of Mount Hermon a spring flows from a cave, one of the sources of the Jordan. In the Greek period it became a shrine to Pan, with niches cut in the cliff; Herod the Great built a temple there for Augustus, and Philip the tetrarch made the town his capital, renaming it Caesarea. Its Arabic name, Banias, keeps the old name.

Hermon in 1 Enoch

The Book of the Watchers (1 Enoch 6) says the angels who sinned with women descended on Mount Hermon and bound themselves by oath there. The book is older than the New Testament and is echoed in Jude 14-15. Genesis 6 itself does not name the place.

Pharisees and Sadducees

The Sadducees were linked to the priestly aristocracy and the temple; the Pharisees were teachers of the oral tradition. They differed on resurrection, angels and the authority of tradition (Acts 23:8), which makes their joint approach striking.

SOURCED Early witnesses

>
> John Chrysostom, c. AD 390. Homilies on Matthew 54, on 16:18. NPNF 1.10 (public domain).

DEBATED Where scholars differ

Who or what is the rock?

Readers have taken the rock as Peter himself (as first confessor and leader), as Peter's confession of faith (Chrysostom), or as Christ. Some, with the setting in mind, add the rock face of Hermon's shrine. The wordplay Petros/petra ties the rock closely to Peter.

Gates of Hades: defense or attack?

The video reads the gates as hell's defenses that cannot withstand the church's advance. Others take 'gates of Hades' as death itself, which will not overpower the church (Isaiah 38:10).

Binding and loosing

Interpretations include declaring what is forbidden or permitted, forgiving or retaining sins (John 20:23), and church discipline (18:15-18). The video promises its own reading later.

CAREFUL READING Small slips in the video

Small slips worth knowing (offered gently; the video's main points stand):

- 'Gates of hell' is the wording of the translation the video reads; the LSB has 'the gates of Hades' (16:18). Hades is the realm of the dead, not Gehenna.
- The belief that the sons of God descended on Mount Hermon comes from 1 Enoch 6, not from Genesis 6, which does not name a place.
- The claim that the Romans called Hermon 'the gates of hell' is not sourced in the video. Popular teachers often call the cave at Pan's shrine 'the gates of hell'; Josephus describes a deep cave and spring there but does not use that name.
- The video says the Ninevites were 'prideful' and the Queen of the South 'didn't believe.' The queen did say 'I did not believe those words, until I came and my eyes had seen it' (1 Kings 10:7); Jesus' point in 12:41-42 is that both responded.
- Philip did not found the town from nothing: he rebuilt Paneas at the springs and renamed it.

- The captions write 'Cesaria Philippi,' 'Barjonah,' 'Bahal' and 'Bal' for Baal, 'levan' for leaven, and 'esqueological' for eschatological.
