Short summary

- The teacher reads Matthew 20:1-16. A landowner hires laborers for his vineyard early in the morning for a denarius, then more at the third, sixth, ninth and eleventh hours, promising 'whatever is right.' At evening he pays the last first, a denarius each. Those hired first expect more, receive a denarius, and grumble: 'you have made them equal to us.' He answers that he did them no wrong: is it not lawful for him to do what he wishes with his own, or is their eye envious because he is generous? So the last shall be first, and the first last.
- The parable continues Jesus' answer to Peter (19:27-30), and 'the last … first' frames it on both sides. The video follows Craig Blomberg in seeing 19:1-20:16 as one unit, bookended by two questions: 'Is it lawful?' (19:3) and 'Is it not lawful?' (20:15).
- A vineyard would make any Jew think of Israel. A denarius was a normal day's wage, and the Torah required day laborers to be paid before sunset (Deuteronomy 24:15; Leviticus 19:13). The lesson lies in the surprise: the master lines everyone up to be paid, last first, so all can see.
- The first workers were not cheated; they complain because the master 'made them equal.' Their grumbling recalls Israel in the wilderness (Numbers 14:27). 'Is your eye envious' is literally 'is your eye evil,' the Hebrew idiom ayin ra'ah for stinginess (Proverbs 23:6; 28:22; Matthew 6:23). Vinedressers, wealth and a double portion in Isaiah 61 suggest the logic of Jubilee.

> "Those who are fit for the kingdom of heaven must have God's good eye."

- The lesson: the real currency in the kingdom of heaven is not money, it's mercy. Those fit for the kingdom must have God's good eye and extend radical mercy to all who need it.

Look for the surprise

Jesus' parables are meant to surprise and shock, so the lesson usually sits in the surprising moments. Here: the master keeps hiring, pays the last first in front of everyone, and gives them a full day's wage.

A man with an evil eye.

Matthew 6:22-23
If your eye is bad.

Isaiah 61:1-7
The favorable year; vinedressers and a double portion.

Matthew 20:17-28

Coming next: the request of James and John's mother.

Key verses in the LSB

“For the kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire laborers for his vineyard.”
Matthew 20:1 (LSB)

“Is it not lawful for me to do what I wish with what is my own? Or is your eye envious because I am generous?”’
Matthew 20:15 (LSB)

“So the last shall be first, and the first last.”’’
Matthew 20:16 (LSB)

Laborers for his vineyard

The bookends, the vineyard, the hours and the wages.

MATTHEW 19:3; 20:15

Is it lawful? Is it not lawful?

THE PHARISEES · MATTHEW 19:3
“And some Pharisees came to Jesus, testing Him and saying, “Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife for any reason at all?”’

THE LANDOWNER · MATTHEW 20:15
“Is it not lawful for me to do what I wish with what is my own? Or is your eye envious because I am generous?”’

FROM THE VIDEO The video follows Craig Blomberg: three controversial stories (marriage, the rich ruler, the vineyard) form one thematic unit, framed by two questions. Pay attention to bookends; there is greater depth to discover.

BACKGROUND The LSB keeps the echo: both verses use the Greek exestin, 'it is lawful.'

MATTHEW 20:1; ISAIAH 5:7

A vineyard means Israel

JESUS · MATTHEW 20:1
“‘For the kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire laborers for his vineyard.”

ISAIAH · ISAIAH 5:7
“For the vineyard of Yahweh of hosts is the house of Israel / And the men of Judah His delightful plant. / Thus He hoped for justice, but behold, bloodshed; / For righteousness, but behold, a cry of distress.”

FROM THE VIDEO The moment a Jew heard 'vineyard' he should have thought of Israel, the way God and His prophets sometimes characterized His people. So who stands in for the master of the house?

MATTHEW 20:6-7 (LSB)

THE HOURS

“And about the eleventh hour he went out and found others standing around; and he *said to them, ‘Why have you been standing here idle all day long?’ They *said to him, ‘Because no one hired us.’ He *said to them, ‘You go into the vineyard too.’”

FROM THE VIDEO A denarius was the normal pay for a full day. Counting from about 6 a.m., the master goes out again at the third hour (9 a.m.), sixth (noon), ninth (3 p.m.) and eleventh (5 p.m.).

FROM THE VIDEO Why so many trips? We're not told. Perhaps it helps to know that day laborers who were not hired, and their families, would probably go hungry that night.

FROM THE VIDEO Only the first group is promised a denarius; the rest are told 'whatever is right I will give you' (20:4). Matthew 20:4

◆ Factbook: Watch (of the night)

MATTHEW 20:8; DEUTERONOMY 24:15

Before the sun goes down

JESUS · MATTHEW 20:8

““Now when evening came, the owner of the vineyard *said to his foreman, ‘Call the laborers and pay them their wages, beginning with the last group to the first.’”

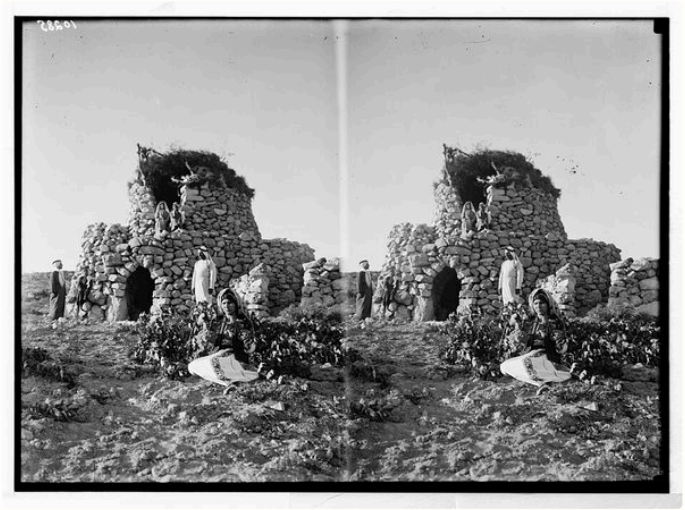

TORAH · DEUTERONOMY 24:15

“You shall give him his wages on his day before the sun goes down, for he is afflicted and sets his soul on it, so that he will not cry against you to Yahweh and it become sin in you.”

FROM THE VIDEO Leviticus 19:13 says the same: a hired worker is paid at the end of each day. Paying the last first means everyone had to line up and watch; the master seems to do it on purpose. Leviticus 19:13

Is your eye evil?

Made equal, grumbling, and the bad eye.

MATTHEW 20:10-13

You have made them equal to us

⚖ MATTHEW 20:12-13 (LSB)

THE COMPLAINT

"saying, 'These last men have worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the day and the scorching heat.' But he answered and said to one of them, 'Friend, I am doing you no wrong; did you not agree with me for a denarius?"

FROM THE VIDEO Only the first workers complain. They were not treated improperly: they agreed to a denarius and received exactly what they were promised. No harm, no foul.

FROM THE VIDEO Their problem is that the master made the others equal to them. Now we're on to something.

MATTHEW 20:11; NUMBERS 14:27

Grumbling

JESUS · MATTHEW 20:11

"Now when they received it, they were grumbling at the landowner,"

YAHWEH · NUMBERS 14:27

""How long shall I bear with this evil congregation who are grumbling against Me? I have heard the complaints of the sons of Israel, which they are making against Me."

FROM THE VIDEO Their grumbling recalls Israel in the wilderness (Exodus 16:7-12; Numbers 14:27; Deuteronomy 1:27). The circumstances differ, but the spirit of discontentment is the same: God provides, and they still complain. Exodus 16:7 Deuteronomy 1:27

MATTHEW 20:15; PROVERBS 28:22

Is your eye evil?

THE LANDOWNER · MATTHEW 20:15

"Is it not lawful for me to do what I wish with what is my own? Or is your eye envious because I am generous?'"

PROVERBS · PROVERBS 28:22

"A man with an evil eye hurries after wealth / And does not know that want will come upon him."

FROM THE VIDEO The last phrase is literally 'Is your eye evil because I am good?' A bad eye, ayin ra'ah, is a Hebrew idiom for being stingy and miserly. Proverbs 23:6 uses it too: the LSB's 'selfish man' is literally 'evil of eye.' Proverbs 23:6

FROM THE VIDEO Someone with a bad eye looks for what is bad in the world and in other people, hence grumbling. People ultimately find what they're looking for, and miss what God is doing.

◆ Factbook: Evil eye ◆ Factbook: Book of Proverbs

MATTHEW 6:22-23

The lamp of the body

MATTHEW 6:22-23 (LSB) SAID BEFORE

""The eye is the lamp of the body; so then if your eye is clear, your whole body will be full of light. But if your eye is bad, your whole body will be full of darkness. If then the light that is in you is darkness, how great is the darkness!"

FROM THE VIDEO Jesus repeats the concept from the Sermon on the Mount. The master has God's good eye; the 6 a.m. workers do not, because their complaint is about his generosity to others, not his treatment of them.

Not money, but mercy

Jubilee, Peter's question, and the real currency of the kingdom.

ISAIAH 61:1-2; LEVITICUS 25:10

The favorable year

ISAIAH · ISAIAH 61:1

"The Spirit of Lord Yahweh is upon me / Because Yahweh has anointed me / To bring good news to the afflicted; / He has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, / To proclaim release to captives / And freedom to prisoners,"

TORAH · LEVITICUS 25:10

"You shall thus set apart as holy the fiftieth year and proclaim a release through the land to all its inhabitants. It shall be a jubilee for you, and each of you shall return to his own possession of land, and each of you shall return to his family."

FROM THE VIDEO Where does Jesus draw these stories from? The video points to Isaiah 61, the year of the Lord's favor, and the year of Jubilee.

BACKGROUND Jesus read Isaiah 61:1-2 in the Nazareth synagogue: 'To proclaim the favorable year of the Lord' (Luke 4:19).

Luke 4:19

Vinedressers and a double portion

ISAIAH 61:5-7 (LSB)

REMEZ

“Strangers will stand and pasture your flocks, / And foreigners will be your farmers and your vinedressers. / But you will be called the priests of Yahweh; / You will be spoken of as ministers of our God. / You will eat the wealth of nations, / And in their glories you will boast. / Instead of your shame you will have a double portion, / And instead of dishonor they will shout for joy over their portion. / Therefore they will possess a double portion in their land; / Everlasting gladness will be theirs.”

FROM THE VIDEO A vineyard, vinedressers, wealth, a portion of payment, a double portion: the parable illustrates the logic of Jubilee. There is some kind of Jubilee theology the story is drawing from.

BACKGROUND In Isaiah the foreigners work Israel's fields while Israel serves as priests; the link to the parable's laborers is the video's reading.

What then will there be for us?

MATTHEW 19:27 (LSB)

EVERYTHING

“Then Peter answered and said to Him, “Behold, we have left everything and followed You; what then will there be for us?””

FROM THE VIDEO The disciples shared something of the rich ruler's mindset that people earn God's favor. Peter left everything; what does he receive? Everything: relationship with God and eternal life.

FROM THE VIDEO The kingdom cannot be understood with a business mentality of wages earned. It trades on God's grace and mercy, extended to whomever He pleases.

THE LESSON

Not money, but mercy

FROM THE VIDEO Jesus tells of a master who seems to throw his wealth away, because the real currency in the parable is not money but mercy. To be rich in God's kingdom has everything to do with being close to the Lord.

FROM THE VIDEO The unit began with man's bad eye and ends with God's good eye. Marriage and wealth alike have an outward arrow: vehicles to extend God's blessing to others, so everyone is blessed.

FROM THE VIDEO Put on the glasses of radical generosity and you will see potential, providence and opportunities to spread the kingdom.

Historical and cultural background

ESTABLISHED Facts most interpreters agree on

Day laborers

Day laborers gathered in the marketplace to be hired (20:3) and lived hand to mouth. The Torah protected them: wages before sunset (Deuteronomy 24:15). On working hours the Mishnah says everything follows 'the regional custom in these matters' (Mishnah Bava Metzia 7:1).

Vineyards

Harvest and pruning needed many hands at once, which helps explain repeated hiring. Vineyards had walls and watchtowers (Isaiah 5:2), and the vineyard was a standing picture of Israel.

Jubilee

Every fiftieth year land returned to its families and Israelite slaves were released (Leviticus 25:8-17). Isaiah 61 takes up the language of release for the coming age, and Jesus reads it at Nazareth (Luke 4:18-21).

SOURCED Early witnesses

> John Chrysostom, c. AD 390. Homilies on Matthew 64, on 20:1-16. NPNF 1.10 (public domain).

DEBATED Where scholars differ

Who are the first and the last?

Is the parable about salvation or rewards?

Readings include Israel and the Gentiles, the disciples and later believers, the religious leaders and sinners, and those converted early or late in life (Chrysostom's view). The video applies it to anyone with a wage-earning mindset.

Some see one gift of eternal life for all; others see a warning about comparing rewards. Both read the denarius as grace, not pay.

Jubilee in the background?

The video hears Isaiah 61 and Jubilee in the parable. Others see the main background in Israel as God's vineyard (Isaiah 5) and in Torah laws on wages.

CAREFUL READING

Small slips in the video

Small slips worth knowing (offered gently; the video's main points stand):

- A denarius was a Roman coin; a drachma was a Greek coin of roughly the same value, not another name for it.
- The 10-hour workday attributed to D. A. Carson is given without a source; the Mishnah says working hours follow local custom (Bava Metzia 7:1).
- The Craig Blomberg passage on the inclusio is read from a commentary the video does not name, so this page summarizes it rather than quoting it.
- In 20:15 the LSB already has 'Is it not lawful' and 'is your eye envious,' where the video's translation reads am I not allowed and do you begrudge my generosity.
- Proverbs 23:6 reads 'a selfish man' in the LSB and 28:22 'a man with an evil eye'; the video's translation says stingy for both.

Reflection and discussion

0 of 6 questions marked done on this device.

1 ☐ Which worker do you identify with first, and why?

2 ☐ Why does the master pay the last first, in front of everyone?

3 ☐ What is the difference between being treated unfairly and being treated generously to someone else?

4 ☐ Where do you notice a 'bad eye' in yourself, looking for what is wrong?

5 ☐ How do marriage and wealth point outward, as vehicles of blessing?

6 ☐ Whom could you extend 'radical mercy' to this week?

14

Application

FROM THE VIDEO

The lesson, stated plainly: the real currency in the kingdom of heaven is not money, it's mercy. Those who are fit for the kingdom must have God's good eye and extend radical mercy to all who need it. In God's kingdom, true satisfaction comes from seeing everyone blessed, not just yourself. If God's people truly understood this, no one would ask whether divorce is allowed or how many deeds earn entrance. Marriage and wealth are vehicles to extend God's blessings to others. The world's influence comes in like the tide; we can't think like the world. Put on the glasses of radical generosity and you will see potential, providence and opportunities to spread the kingdom.

STUDY NOTE (ADDED)

the next time you hear of someone else's blessing, notice your first reaction. Thank God for it out loud, and pray Matthew 6:22 for a clear eye.
