Short summary

- The teacher reads Matthew 12:38-50. Scribes and Pharisees ask for a sign, after miracles they could not deny. Jesus refuses and gives only the sign of Jonah, pointing to His death and resurrection. The men of Nineveh and the Queen of the South will condemn this generation, for 'something greater' is here. Then He speaks of an unclean spirit that returns with seven worse, and says His family are those who do the Father's will.
- Signs in the Old Testament were God's gracious gift, but not something to demand out of unbelief. When Yahweh offered Ahaz a sign, he refused to ask (Isaiah 7:10-12). The demand for a sign parallels the devil's 'If You are the Son of God' in Matthew 4.
- Jesus says 'something greater,' not 'someone,' as in 12:6: He includes Himself and all His works for God's kingdom. The judgment He mentions is the day of Yahweh (Isaiah 2:12-17; Daniel 7:9-10). Nineveh, Israel's proud enemy, repented at lesser preaching; the Queen of Sheba came with hard questions and blessed Yahweh.
- Unclean spirits in waterless places: Isaiah 13, Isaiah 34 and Jeremiah 50 picture ruins overrun by desert creatures, among them the 'night creature' (lilith). Following Michael Heiser, the video reads these as literary pictures of evil spirits; in Second Temple Judaism the wilderness was where evil spirits dwelt, a kind of anti-Eden.

- The key word is 'house.' In Hebrew bayit also means temple (Bethel, 'house of God'). Jesus likely pointed at the healed man nearby: as a spirit returns with seven worse to an empty house, so it will be with the house of Israel, which had no room for the Spirit of God. Compare 'your house is being left to you desolate' (23:38).
- The lesson for the original audience: God is unwilling to reveal His activity to those who are unwilling to recognize it. For us: stay humble, trusting and dependent, like little children (11:25-26), so we keep recognizing God's activity around us.

Find the key word

The teacher's tip for a passage that seems to change subject: look for the word everything turns on, then think about it in Hebrew. Here the word is 'house,' and bayit can also mean the temple.

The video reads from another English translation. Quotations on this page are from the LSB.

Three days and three nights in the fish.

Isaiah 2:12-18
Yahweh's day against the proud.

Daniel 7:9-10
The court sat, and the books were opened.

1 Kings 10:1-9
The queen of Sheba tests Solomon.

Isaiah 34:11-15
Edom's ruins: desert creatures and the night creature.

Isaiah 13:19-22
Babylon's ruins.

Matthew 23:37-24:2
'Your house is being left to you desolate.'

Matthew 13:1-23
Coming next: the parables.

Key verses in the LSB

“for just as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the sea monster, so will the Son of Man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.”
Matthew 12:40 (LSB)

“Ask a sign for yourself from Yahweh your God; make it deep as Sheol or high as heaven.”
Isaiah 7:11 (LSB)

“For whoever does the will of My Father who is in heaven, he is My brother and sister and mother.”

Something greater than Jonah and Solomon

A demanded sign, Ahaz, the sign of Jonah, and the queen of Sheba.

MATTHEW 12:38-39

Teacher, we want a sign

MATTHEW 12:38-39 (LSB)

DEMAND

“Then some of the scribes and Pharisees answered and said to Him, “Teacher, we want to see a sign from You.” But He answered and said to them, “An evil and adulterous generation eagerly seeks for a sign; and yet no sign will be given to it but the sign of Jonah the prophet;”

FROM THE VIDEO This comes after miracles even they could not deny, so it is not a genuine request; it shows willful ignorance. They likely wanted something that fit their own expectations.

FROM THE VIDEO 'Adulterous' is the prophets' word for unfaithful Israel (Ezekiel 16:32). The demand also echoes the devil's 'If You are the Son of God' (4:3, 6). Ezekiel 16:32 Matthew 4:3-7

ISAIAH 7:11-12 (LSB)

AHAZ

““Ask a sign for yourself from Yahweh your God; make it deep as Sheol or high as heaven.” But Ahaz said, “I will not ask, and I will not test Yahweh!””

FROM THE VIDEO Did God give signs in the Old Testament? Absolutely, as a gracious gift. But they were not given because people demanded more evidence for their unbelief.

BACKGROUND Isaiah does not praise Ahaz's answer: 'Is it too slight a thing for you to try the patience of men, that you will try the patience of my God as well?' (Isaiah 7:13). Then he announces the sign of Immanuel (Isaiah 7:14). Isaiah 7:13-14

MATTHEW 12:40-41

The sign of Jonah

JONAH · JONAH 1:17

“And Yahweh appointed a great fish to swallow Jonah, and Jonah was in the stomach of the fish three days and three nights.”

JESUS · MATTHEW 12:41

“The men of Nineveh will stand up with this generation at the judgment, and will condemn it because they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and behold, something greater than Jonah is here.”

FROM THE VIDEO Jonah's three days point to Jesus' death and resurrection. But the Ninevites, Assyrians, were proud, longtime enemies of God's people; in 701 BC Assyria nearly took Jerusalem. The Pharisees are like them in pride, and unlike them because Nineveh repented.

FROM THE VIDEO 'The judgment' is shorthand for the day of Yahweh (Ezekiel 13:5; Isaiah 2:12-17), when, in Daniel's vision, 'the court sat, and the books were opened' (Daniel 7:10). Isaiah 2:12-17 Daniel 7:9-10

WISDOM

“Blessed be Yahweh your God who delighted in you, to set you on the throne of Israel; because Yahweh loved Israel forever, therefore He made you king, to do justice and righteousness.””

FROM THE VIDEO The queen of Sheba came to test Solomon with hard questions (the LSB says 'riddles') because at first she did not believe the reports. The Pharisees are like her, questioning; but unlike her, they will not bless God for the One He has set over Israel.

1 Kings 10:1-7

The spirit and the empty house

Waterless places, the night creature, and the house of Israel.

MATTHEW 12:43

Waterless places

🏜️ MATTHEW 12:43-45 (LSB)

WILDERNESS

““Now when the unclean spirit goes out of a man, it passes through waterless places seeking rest, and does not find it. Then it says, ‘I will return to my house from which I came’; and when it comes, it finds it unoccupied, swept, and put in order. Then it goes and takes along with it seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they go in and live there; and the last state of that man becomes worse than the first. That is the way it will also be with this evil generation.”””

FROM THE VIDEO It sounds like a change of subject, but it is all connected. In Second Temple Judaism the wilderness was a place where evil spirits dwelt: a symbol of chaos, exile and separation from God's presence, an anti-Eden. Following Michael Heiser, the video adds that the barren desert was a picture of the realm of the dead.

BACKGROUND On the Day of Atonement the goat for Azazel was sent 'into the wilderness' (Leviticus 16:10). Leviticus 16:10

ISAIAH 13 AND 34; JEREMIAH 50

The night creature

ISAIAH 34:14 (LSB) LILITH

“And the desert creatures will meet with the wolves; / The hairy goat also will cry to its kind; / Surely, the night creature will obtain relief there / And will find itself a resting place.”

FROM THE VIDEO Jesus likely drew the picture partly from Isaiah 13:20-21, Isaiah 34:14 and Jeremiah 50:39, where the ruins of Babylon and Edom are overrun by desert creatures. Isaiah 13:20-21 Jeremiah 50:39

FROM THE VIDEO The Hebrew uses words tied to illegitimate sacrifices ('hairy goat,' se'irim) and lilith, 'night creature,' which later Jewish thought made a night demon. Heiser and others read these creatures as literary pictures of evil spirits, not literal animals.

BACKGROUND Notice that the night creature finds 'a resting place' in the ruins, while Jesus' unclean spirit seeks rest and does not find it.

JESUS · MATTHEW 24:2

“And He answered and said to them, “Do you not see all these things? Truly I say to you, not one stone here will be left upon another, which will not be torn down.”””

FROM THE VIDEO Why call a person a house? In Hebrew, bayit is house and also temple: Bethel means 'house of God.' Like a good rabbi, Jesus is likely pointing at the healed man still standing nearby.

FROM THE VIDEO As the spirit returns with seven worse, so it will be with the house of Israel. If there is no place for the Spirit of God in the house, it will be overrun by evil. Jesus says it again in 23:37-38 and 24:2. Matthew 23:37-38

Jesus' true family

“But Jesus answered the one who was telling Him and said, “Who is My mother and who are My brothers?” And stretching out His hand toward His disciples, He said, “Behold My mother and My brothers! For whoever does the will of My Father who is in heaven, he is My brother and sister and mother.””

FROM THE VIDEO His mother and brothers seek to speak to Him while He is still speaking: they interrupt His teaching. Some suggest they were at odds with what He said, or with Him, or both.

FROM THE VIDEO If so, opposition was coming from all sides: crowds, leaders and family. His family are those who do the Father's will.

BACKGROUND Mark says His own people came 'to take custody of Him; for they were saying, “He has lost His senses”' (Mark 3:21), and John: 'not even His brothers were believing in Him' (John 7:5). Mark 3:21 John 7:5

Historical and cultural background

ESTABLISHED Facts most interpreters agree on

Nineveh and Assyria

Nineveh was a capital of the Assyrian empire, which destroyed Samaria in 722 BC. In 701 BC Sennacherib besieged Jerusalem but did not take it (2 Kings 18-19). Nineveh itself fell in 612 BC.

Sheba

Sheba was a kingdom of southern Arabia (probably in today's Yemen), rich from the incense trade. For Jesus' hearers she came 'from the ends of the earth' (12:42).

Three days and three nights

Jews often counted any part of a day as a day, so Friday afternoon to Sunday morning could be spoken of as three days (compare Esther 4:16 with 5:1).

Spirits in the wilderness

Second Temple writings often place evil spirits in desolate places; in Tobit a demon flees to the far parts of Egypt (Tobit 8:3). The Day of Atonement goat was sent away 'to Azazel' in the wilderness (Leviticus 16:8-10).

DEBATED

Where scholars differ

Who is the house?

The video: a double meaning, the healed man and the house of Israel (bayit as temple), pointing ahead to 23:38. Most commentators agree the parable is about 'this evil generation' (12:45); fewer press the temple sense.

Were Jesus' family against Him?

Matthew does not say why they came. Mark 3:21 suggests they thought He was out of His mind; Catholic and Orthodox readers often stress Mary's faithfulness and read 'brothers' as relatives.

Lilith and the desert creatures

Some read Isaiah 34's creatures as ordinary wild animals of a ruin; others, with Heiser, as demonic figures. Ancient translations differ (the Septuagint has 'onocentaurs').

CAREFUL READING

Small slips in the video

Small slips worth knowing (offered gently; the video's main points stand):

- The video says Ahaz 'responds appropriately' when he will not ask for a sign. Isaiah answers him with a rebuke: 'Is it too slight a thing for you to try the patience of men, that you will try the patience of my God as well?' (Isaiah 7:13). Ahaz's pious-sounding refusal hid his unbelief.
- The day of Yahweh text is Isaiah 2:12 (the video says 'Isaiah 6:12').
- Nahum 3 condemns Nineveh's bloodshed and harlotries; its pride is clearest in Zephaniah 2:15: 'I am, and there is no one besides me.'
- Jesus does not refuse to see His mother and brothers in the text; He answers the messenger and points to His disciples.
- The claims credited to Michael Heiser about the wilderness and the desert creatures are summaries we could not check against his books.

- The captions write 'Jonah 1:1 17' for Jonah 1:17, 'liit' for lilith, 'bait' for bayit, and 'BL' for Bethel.
